

CHAPTER SEVEN

FACULTIES

JAMES H. PROVOST

- I. AUTHORITY TO GRANT FACULTIES
 - II. NECESSARY FACULTIES
 - III. OPTIONAL FACULTIES
- APPENDIX: SAMPLE DOCUMENTS

Although the current law of the Church grants various faculties to clergy for pastoral functions, faculties must still be granted by the diocesan bishop or other local ordinary for some ministries in a diocese. In addition, it has become the practice in many dioceses to include in a listing of "faculties" those items granted by the law itself, or other pastoral suggestions and reminders of the requirements stated in the law.

I. AUTHORITY TO GRANT FACULTIES

Generally, faculties are issued in the name of the diocesan bishop, even if he has designated someone else to issue the faculties in his name.

As discussed above in Chapter Four, canon law distinguishes between diocesan bishops and local ordinaries. When the canons use the term "local ordinary," this includes the diocesan bishop, vicars general, and episcopal vicars within their scope of competence (c. 134, §2). When the canons use the term "diocesan bishop," only the diocesan bishop is meant; if the bishop desires someone else to act on his behalf in these instances, he must specifically delegate the person for this.

Most matters traditionally included in diocesan faculties can be done by the local ordinary, so the faculty to do them could be extended by the diocesan bishop, vicar general, or an episcopal vicar within the scope of his competence. This includes the crucial faculty of hearing confessions (c. 969, §1).

Faculties granted in the name of the diocesan bishop can be extended by anyone the bishop delegates for this purpose. The vicar general, an episcopal vicar, or at times the diocesan chancellor have commonly been delegated to grant diocesan faculties; at times, deans have also been authorized to do this by the bishop. In these cases, the faculties come from the bishop; the application of them to an individual cleric is done by a delegate of the bishop.¹

Granting faculties is an administrative act by which a favor (the faculties) is extended to an individual. Before issuing the faculties the person who extends them should be informed as to the competence and reliability of the person who will receive them (c. 50). They should be in writing (c. 51), and even if communicated orally (as in an emergency situation) a record should be kept of this and a written set of faculties should be supplied to the individual as soon as possible.

Removing faculties is also an administrative act. The diocesan bishop can remove faculties, as can another executive in the diocese authorized to do this (e.g., the vicar general or an episcopal vicar acting within the scope of his authority) unless the diocesan bishop has restricted this to himself. A delegate may remove faculties only if authorized to do this.

Since removing faculties can have an adverse affect on the individual's reputation as well as on the ministry available in the diocese, the one who decrees they are to be lifted must first seek out the necessary facts and should hear those concerned, especially the person whose faculties are being removed (c. 50).

II. NECESSARY FACULTIES

The only faculty which is strictly necessary for a priest to minister is the faculty to hear confessions (c. 966, §1). The law itself grants this faculty to local ordinaries, canons penitentiary, and parish pastors (c. 968, §1). Certain religious superiors also have this faculty from the law to hear confessions ¹Because the issuing of faculties in the bishop's name can be in virtue of delegation for this by the bishop, especially when done by the diocesan chancellor, there does not appear to be any obstacle to the bishop delegating a lay person to issue faculties in his name. The point is under some discussion by canonists, but in practice the bishop's action of delegating someone to issue faculties in his name, and their actually doing it, would be valid even if the matter is disputed, in virtue of c. 14.

Hoder

JMJ Dear Fr. Pat,

This is an appeal for clemency, mercy, understanding, or whatever is missing in the situation of Jim Hoder. (Rev. James Hoder). Maybe it's 'understanding.'

I have lived for over a year with Jim, [redacted] I have conversed with him, many hours; been in his company many days; there are no secrets here. Jim is exceptionally intelligent. He is a priest who loves God, loves his priesthood and loves the Church.

Who am I and why do I write this appeal? I am a priest forty years, [redacted] and I write because I feel that an injustice is being done to Jim Hoder... an injustice in this sense: when comparing cases (and I know several) where priests who have made more mistakes both in number and gravity, are returning to ministry. Jim Hoder is not a pedophile. He is not a sex addict or for that matter any kind of addict. There are no lawsuits, no publicity. There is nothing about his case which should exclude him from all ministry in the Church. He is neither a danger nor a threat to anyone. Certainly, there must be some job for such a highly talented priest as Jim.

Why do I write this appeal? My conscience tell me to come to his defense. St. Paul tells Timothy: "No one came to my defense." He says, "They all abandoned me." I pray that it will not be held against them."

I feel a lot of pain about Jim Hoder because I understand him. I know that he is in deep pain...and probably feels abandoned.... abandoned by the Church he loves.

I pray that you will give this a prayer. I pray that somebody up there in Chicago will give this case a review...or something... a few prayers; a little 'understanding'... mercy..whatever!

Thank you for listening...
A brother priest; a wounded one...
Sincerely, [redacted]

Dear Father Hoder:

One of my primary concerns as Archbishop of Chicago is the general apostolate and promotion of vocations. The recent Priest Senate survey also indicates that the priests of the Archdiocese share this interest.

If the generous young people of our area are to respond to the challenge of a life dedicated to the service of the Gospel, they must be made aware of the various opportunities available to them in religious life. I need your help to make this possible.

I am asking you to accept the added responsibility of being a cluster vocation director. In general, this would entail the promotion of various vocational activities in the parishes of your area or cluster. Father Roger Caplis, Vocation Director for the Archdiocese, will be in touch with you shortly in order to supply further details and answer any of your questions.

I know how busy the priests of the Archdiocese are and I would not ask you to take on this added burden if the need was not so urgent.

With my very best wishes, I remain, dear Father Hoder,

RE: Summary of our 10/21/85 meeting

Jim, I mentioned I would send you this summary of some of the key points of our meeting. As I said to you, I admire your generosity in wanting to help young people from your former parish, Assumption, who have been in serious trouble. I know you are especially sensitive to the fact that other adults, both familial and professional, seem to have "given up" on these young people. However, it seems that your well-intentioned efforts are frustrating the effectiveness of your over-all ministry at the present time. Therefore:

1. Do not welcome these young people into the rectory.
2. Do not drive over to their area to provide transportation for them.
3. If there must be some kind of communication with them, limit it to telephone conversations.

I appreciate your cooperative attitude in our meeting yesterday, and I look forward to our next meeting on November 25, 1985, at 10:00 AM.

Millard O'Keefe and Jim Hoder TV
(Meeting with Tom Ventura)

I. Expectations: (Millard)

2. Significant presence: People perceive Jim as a resident rather than an associate because they don't see him around. Jim's teaching takes about 6 hours per week. He also takes care of an aged, ailing father. Also because Jim is not present, Millard is not able to communicate with him about immediate concerns.

3. Personal concern: Millard worked with a priest who was considered "lazy." He was bounced from one parish to another. It was almost as if he was running away from parish responsibilities. Millard worries about a similar pattern developing in Jim's life. He seems to have a difficult time balancing his priorities between outside interests and parish duties. If something has to give, it is parish activities that go down the tube.

- eg. - working with altar boys has been irregular
- communion calls for the sick: there have been complaints that Jim doesn't come very often.
- Sister Lyonette: If a person works hard and effectively I tend to be passive and give them plenty of room. She does have a tendency to be domineering. I can call her on that and she can take it. You can call her on it also.
- CCD: The perception is that you're not interested.
- Multi-parish area ministry. It is a challenge, but it is the fact of life for our area. If it is too difficult for Jim, he should move because it is a stressful situation. There is Hispanic ministry in suburban areas which are not consolidated in area ministry situations.

II. Expectations: (Jim Hoder)

1. Sister Lyonette: We are working better now. I understand that her frustrations are not just all me. I used to take it personally.

2. CCD: It is on Sunday and I like to be around to greet the people. I also felt like I was interrupting their lesson plan when I went into the classrooms one time.

3. Servers: With a consolidated school it is hard to identify who your kids are. What makes them identify with St. David's parish?

4. Priorities: On Sundays people ask me to do things. I don't like to say No; eg. the Cubans and their confraternity. It is hard to sort out conflicting demands. I try to be a man of prayer. I try to walk around the neighborhood and not just stay in the Rectory. It has been a slow entry, but more and more I feel at home.

5. I am the kind of person who likes to be told what to do. One Sunday I remarked that I was tired and one of the Sisters reacted as if I had said something terrible.

III. Discussion

M. - Concerning reputation. When I hear priests making comments about one another, I consider the source. Do I respect the man making the observation or not? My real concern is that the criticisms of Jim about being lazy or a problem come from priests I respect.

Ventura - Concerns about Millard's health, about Jim's growth as an effective priest, and about Jim's dealings with some pretty crafty street kids who may take advantage of his efforts to help them. I asked Jim to avoid involvement with those youngsters, and Millard to serve as Jim's on site supervisor in this regard, and for either of them to call upon Ventura for assistance when necessary.

M. - A comment on Sister Mary's reaction about Jim saying he was tired on Sunday. She reacted to Jim's overall image rather than one specific incident.

Ventura - Talked about "significant presence" meaning to try to be at events, places, events that are important to people and to make an impact, to give recognition to people, to recognize that I am a public person, and to try to be a "ward healer" without being a phony.

Hoder - Sometimes I need people to give me a push, to alert me to events where I should be present.

Ventura - Can Millard do that for you without you getting hurt or annoyed at him being too bossy? He seems to be willing to do that if it is helpful to you.

Hoder - Can you give specifics?

Millard - The Mananitas on Guadalupe feast. The CCD program.

IV. Specifics (40 hours a week)

M. - Jim has Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday as his teaching days. But in our consolidated parish situation those are our key work days. Monday is a business day. Friday is a good day for me, Millard, to take off so as to rest up for the Saturday afternoon-Sunday busy time. Sunday evening and Monday would be the best time for Jim to take off, in my view. That would free me. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are days when you are needed. (Teaching from 11:45 to 2:30 including travel time could fit in OK). On Friday Jim would be the priest on call for the entire parish. Afternoons do tend to be a slower time, although we have both a morning and afternoon session to our pre-school and kindergarten. However, Tuesdays at 2:30 PM are our staff meetings.

Ventura - For our next meeting both priests will try to do a time schedule of typical week.

RE: James Hoder

1. I talked to [REDACTED] today. I asked him if he would check out with detective [REDACTED] to see what information he might have regarding the so-called "Fr. Jimmy". [REDACTED] talked to detective [REDACTED]. He said that detective [REDACTED] is a wonderful policeman who has just been promoted to sargent. He has an excellent reputation. [REDACTED] knows him well. When he mentioned the case to sargent [REDACTED], he remembered the case clearly. He called it a "major burglary". But he was certain that there was no priest involved. He would remember, he said, if any priest had been mentioned. He has done enough covering for priests in the past and he would have been very alert to such a thing, but no one mentioned anything at all about a priest. The name "Fr. Jimmy" meant nothing to him. He was certain that it does not appear on the police report [REDACTED].

2. [REDACTED] said that in view of detective [REDACTED] promotion, he will no longer be involved with area 4 property crime, so he will have nothing further to do with the case. I agreed to call [REDACTED] in the event I get any further information. But until then, I am just going to drop the matter, as I don't think it would be fair to jeopardize a priest's reputation based on such flimsy evidence from rather unreliable sources.

SUPERVISOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A priest who wishes a Sabbatical should discuss the implications of his departure among colleagues with whom he shares ministry.

The appropriate supervisor colleague (pastor, agency director, or dean) must be aware of the proposal before the application is made. Even when a priest's Sabbatical comes at a time of termination/transition, there should be discussion beforehand.

A pastor whose associate is making application should understand the Archdiocesan policy that the parish continues to pay full salary (minus the $200.00 stole honorarium) until the associate returns (maximum 6 months).

If a parish is on subsidy, the priest's salary will be paid by the Archdiocesan Parish Subsidy Fund.

If a pastor requests a Sabbatical, the dean should be informed and acknowledge that he is aware of the application.

I haven't chosen a site yet. I would like to talk with a counselor from the board. My father is 81 years old + legally blind. I am his support + take care of his affairs. I need a site close to home (e.g. Notre Dame). There are other things too, but I wanted to get my form in.

RE: James Hoder

1. Fr. Millard O'Keefe, the pastor of St. David's called. He said that Fr. Hoder's term will be expiring this June and he felt obliged to make known to me some of the situations concerning Jim. He did not think it would be very helpful to just let Jim go to another assignment without at least bringing to the attention of someone in authority the concerns that Millard has about Jim.

2. We had a very lengthy conversation and I suggested to Millard that it would be very helpful if he would write me a letter giving as many examples of erratic behavior as possible. I can then call Millard down to fill in the details.

3. Millard also said the housekeeper, [REDACTED], would like to speak to me, but she was very nervous and insists that her information be kept confidential, as she fears what Hoder might do.

4. [REDACTED] got on the phone. She has been the personal housekeeper at St. David's for 29 years. Her last name is [REDACTED]

5. [REDACTED] said that she has not spoken to anyone other than to Fr. O'Keefe. She said that Hoder is "as gay as you make them". She says the people Hoder deals with are also gay. He has a lot of literature and photos around his room and everything is of men.

6. I asked [REDACTED] how old these men were and she estimated anywhere from age 16 to 22. Some of them are definitely minors. They do go upstairs to his room. Most of the time, however, the door is left open. [REDACTED] said that Hoder is reading a gay book right now, the title of which is "The Color of My Hair".

7. [REDACTED] said Hoder is a very secretive person. She has no idea if he acts out his homosexuality. He did have a gay guy stay overnight in his room and [REDACTED] believes that they were in the same bed. He was young, about 18 years old or so. [REDACTED] said that she is a very observant woman, though not a nose one.

8. I asked her about drugs, marijuana, etc. and she indicated that there was no incident of this that she is aware of.

9. [REDACTED] says that Hoder receives a lot of collect calls. Many of them are from jail birds. One is definitely calling him from the jail. They want [REDACTED] to accept the charges and she will refuse.

10. With regard to the parish, [REDACTED] said that Hoder is very lax and will get out of whatever work he can. [REDACTED]'s main concern was Hoder's homosexuality. She said she thinks he has "an emotional problem". She said that she knows this just by looking at him. He is no help at all to Fr. O'Keefe. One guy,

██████, who is a gay, calls a lot. None of these people are parishioners.

11. With regard to his personal habits, ██████ said he is a very "scuzzy" person. He throws all of his dirty clothes on the floor instead of using the hamper. He doesn't shower. He smells. He seems to be in a depression now and sleeps all day long. Sometimes he'll say he'll be there for supper, but doesn't show. We always have to ask him whether he is going to be in. He is no help whatsoever around the parish.

12. I asked ██████ if she had ever seen anything that appeared to be stolen in his room and she said "No".

13. After talking to ██████ Millard got back on the phone. He mentioned that ██████ spoke about pictures and he recalls that on the visor in his car there is a picture of a man, the one who arranged for Hoder to get the Mercedes. Hoder said this same man comes to the rectory frequently with a woman who is dressed in a very revealing fashion. They are from the north side and are friends of Hoder's. Whenever they come, they come together and she is always dressed in the same seductive way. Millard can't figure it out. And he wonders why, if they are husband and wife and friends of Hoder's, he doesn't have a picture of both of them on the visor instead of just the man.

Dear Ray,

13 Feb 90

I am sending you this note to remind you of our conversation about the placement of Fr. Jim Hoder, whose term expires this coming June. I am very concerned about Jim's future assignment both for himself and for the parish that he will be serving.

Jim has a definite lack of purpose in his sense of parish ministry. He has a definite lack of maturity and sense of judgement. He has put himself into situations that are suspect even if innocent. For example, the occasion a few years ago when he had a young man stay in his room over night when guest rooms were available. On occasion pornographic and homosexual literature has been left in the room and seen by more than one member of the staff.

With regard to ministry and dedication it is the feeling of Sister Leonette and myself that Jim is seriously deficient in sense of purpose, dedication, responsibility and accountability. He has scheduled many meeting with the servers and not shown up or has come in late. Leading to a loss of interest in many of the youth in this ministry. He has not taken the invitation of our CCD and BCA staffs to come and invite the youth to this ministry. He has just recently not taken care of a repair to one of our staff vehicles which could lead to a serious accident. He has inferred to communion calls that weekly visits are a great inconvenience to the staff. He has shown a lack of direction and preparation in dealing with our RCIA program. There is a constant necessity to check and supervise Jim as if he were a 15 year old seminarian instead of priest ordained 15 years.

In addition to this there is a marked deterioration in his personal hygiene and appearance which has been called to his attention privately by Sr. Leonette. I am concerned about his health as his weight is getting to the point of morbid obesity. On a recent occasion he went to a wake and was not recognized as a priest because of his appearance and he did not introduce himself as such and the family complained about his lack of presence since they did not know he had ben there. The cavalier attitude he displayed in handling the matter was a scandal to the staff person who had to convey the request for a visit to him. There is still a problem about the way he keeps his room so much so that on occasion the exterminators have said his room is a breeding ground for bug. The housekeeper has all but given up on making his room neat and she prides herself on the neatness of our home where she has worked for 29 year.

All this indicated to me that Jim has some very serious problems that are not being dealt with adequately at this time. I write this to you because I feel I have gone as far as I can go and have been frustrated, but I am concerned that Jim receive the help he needs to be a good priest or if this is part of his problem that he be able to deal with it now. Right now I feel that he cannot function effectively as a priest, is a danger to himself in terms of health and hygiene and would be more problem than help to any parish or pastor. Sr. Leonette and I wish to be helpful in anyway that we can in helping Jim to deal with his problems that he might be happy in whatever course his life takes in the future.

Thank you for hearing me,
Yours in Christ,

AOC 014734

RE: James Hoder

1. Millard O'Keefe, the pastor at St. David's, came in to see me together with Sr. Leonette, the Pastoral Associate. Their purpose was to discuss Jim Hoder. Jim's term expires in June and he will be moving on. Millard's concern is that Jim would just go into another assignment and the same problems would develop again. Millard has nothing to gain or lose and could easily walk away from all of this and just let the chips fall where they may. But he feels he owes it to Jim to try to get him to seek the help he needs.

2. The first issue Millard and Sister talked about was Jim's health. Jim is not taking care of himself at all. They estimated that his waist-line is at least 50 inches. He is an over-eater and he has just let himself go as far as his personal appearance is concerned. He looks very sloppy and has a very poor self-image.

3. With regard to ministry, Jim has no sense of this at all. Jim is gone from the parish much more than he is present. He does do a class with the pre-school children, but that is about all. He is supposed to be involved in RCIA and the giving of instructions, but he does it poorly. Either he doesn't want to do these things or he just can't. He also is in charge of altar boys, but he cancels practices so frequently that the altar boys just lose heart and give up. Instead of training the kids himself, he lets their older brothers who are altar boys do it. The altar boys have disintegrated at St. David's. Jim never initiates anything. He is extremely nervous at the altar. Sister said he is constantly picking on his fingers.

4. Jim rarely eats meals at the rectory. He will sometimes say he is going to be there, but more often than not, he does not show. The only thing he does with regularity is liturgical events where he can pick up a little extra pocket money. For instance, Jim is always anxious to have the Michael Reese beeper because it means $50 per call. There is just no sense of liturgy, especially on special occasions. He even does announcements poorly and if Millard really wants to get a message across, he has to do it himself. Jim would follow a plan if Sister worked it out step by step. But otherwise, he is very insecure and confused at the liturgies.

5. Jim shows no initiative. He does not have the ability to follow through on anything. He will promise to do something, but then doesn't. Sister will even indicate what has to be done with regard to RCIA and then he'll turn around and do whatever he pleases.

6. Socially, Jim doesn't relate well at all. All his friends seem to be outsiders. They are either young kids from Assumption or people from St. Ita's. He is very close to the Philipino couple at St. Ita's. There is also a 65 year old man, [REDACTED] a musician, and Millard thinks he's from

St. Ita's. This man takes care of Jim's finances. [REDACTED] and the kids make a lot of phone calls to the rectory. A number of them are Hispanic kids from Assumption. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and a number of the kids will call collect and of course Jim won't accept the call. That way they tip him off and he returns the call so they in effect are avoiding paying the telephone company. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] changed his clothes once in the parlor and just left the clothes on the floor, and then Jim expected Annie, the housekeeper, to clean up.

7. Jim's room is always dirty looking, totally disorganized. Jim seems to be a praying person and he prepares his sermons well. He does give good homilies. But money is a big obsession with him. For example, he took four or five of the ladies to the CCW meeting downtown and he charged each one $3. He doesn't come right out and say that the charge is $3, but the ladies kind of know what the score is and they will ask him if $2 or $3 will do and he will say "yes". In other words, he manipulates them into paying.

8. Jim has no practical sense. He bought 800 Easter Eggs for 5¢ a piece because it was a good deal and he intended to sell them for a quarter. But people wouldn't buy them and he eventually had to give them away. He is a real enigma. There is so much good in him, but so much that counteracts the good. Jim admitted to Tom Ventura that he wouldn't do things unless someone was on his back. He seems to be confused as to what a priest's role is in today's Church.

9. Jim spends a lot of money on gadgets, toys. For example, he has little remote control cars and airplanes. He bought a big flashlight and seems to enjoy shining it in the sky. It's like dealing with a 15 year old. His sense of judgement is like a teenager's.

10. Jim is gone a lot, claiming that he has to be away to take care of his 80 year old father. His father is a retired policeman and Millard thinks that a lot of things are covered up because of the police fraternity. Millard said that Jim was assigned to visit hospitals once a week, but he balked at doing it. He preferred to send cards. He doesn't want to be involved in any parish meetings that will tie him down. He is gone most of the time. He goes to the opera on Monday nights and sees just about every movie in town. And when he should be on duty, he's not there.

11. Sister said that we ask lay people to volunteer their services after they have worked an eight-hour day and have taken care of their own responsibilities at home. We're lucky if Jim puts in a three-hour day at best. He leaves after Mass on Sunday and Monday is his day off and while he is supposed to be back early Tuesday morning, frequently it's much later in the day. And even if he is in the rectory, you can't really depend on him and he will frequently not accept calls. And on Friday when Millard is supposed to be off, Jim will be gone most of the day.

12. Jim used to go out at 10 P.M. and return at 2 A.M. Millard has no idea where he would be going. Millard doubts if they get 20 hours of work a week out of him.

13. At Assumption, the cook would prepare the meals early in the day because she had to leave. While the meal hour was set, Jim would rarely be there. He would just eat whenever he felt like it. He doesn't like to be tied down to a schedule.

14. Lately, Jim has been very nervous about the change of assignment. Millard spoke to Ray Cusack and Don Nevins and he told them that he didn't think that any other pastor should have to go through this. I have to talk to the Personnel Board to make sure that they do not put Jim on open listing, or at least that they don't assign him any where until we are sure he is being treated for whatever his problems are.

15. Millard said that Jim's best friend or closest friend seems to be Rich Simon. Jim used to hang around with Scott Plasek and Scott's death shook Jim up. He also seems to play tennis with Joe Fitzharris and a number of the older priests.

16. Millard said that Jim was a Deacon at Providence of God and John Harrington, the Pastor, recommended to the Seminary that he not be ordained. Dick Feller had trouble with Jim at St. Ita's and Larry Craig had the same difficulties with him at Assumption. His appointment to St. David came through Ken Velo, not the Personnel Board. Evidently the Board couldn't find anyone willing to take him. Jim is afraid of anything new, of structures in which he is not in control. His lifestyle reminds one of a addict.

17. Neither Millard nor Sister mentioned anything about homosexuality, so I raised the question. Sister said that he definitely doesn't deal with women well. He resents Sister very much. There is homosexual literature in his room. His friends are all young males. Before Jim had to meet with Tom Ventura, he used to hang around with a lot of kids who were minors, but that has stopped. But all of his friends are young males, even some of whom are under 18. He had one kid overnight in his room even though there were two other guest rooms available. Jim claims that the kid was scared, but Millard said that the kid made his way all the way from Mexico to Chicago, and if he could do that, he surely wouldn't have been afraid to stay overnight in a room by himself. Sister said she definitely thought Jim is homosexual. He is extremely belligerent towards women and shows them no respect. He treats them like dirt. Millard said that while he has no proof of anything, the phone conversations that he would over-hear between Jim and those who call him are like two girls talking, or a guy and his date. Jim asked them what they had for dinner, etc., things that men normally wouldn't be interested in.

18. Millard said that there is a basic dishonesty about Jim. He went to Mexico and was making arrangements to get one of those shared time condos. He made the deal but then backed out. He had signed a note for $10,000, but then he wrote a letter claiming that his credit card was stolen. He should have just said that he wasn't interested, because those kinds of deals do give you time to change your mind.

19. Both Millard and Sister are willing to confront Jim, if necessary.

20. The way Jim uses money, Millard can see why he's in trouble. He spent a thousand dollars to buy a big stereo unit that he didn't really need. He bought a Mercedes for $10,000 from his friend and he also has a junk automobile. It wouldn't surprise Millard if Jim bought something that was "hot". Jim gets his rear end covered because his father was a policeman.

21. We agreed that Millard and Sister will meet with Jim next week to tell him that they have been down to see me and Millard will tell me once that has been accomplished. I will then call Jim in and see what's going on.

1. I spoke to Ray Cusack today. Ray wanted to know if Jim should stay on the open listing, since he is up for a change. I told him that there was no way Jim was going to be allowed to take another assignment. In the light of my conversation with Millard O'Keefe and Sr. Leonette, I am going to have to call Jim in, etc.

2. However, since I just met with Millard O'Keefe and Sr. Leonette today and they will have to notify Jim that they were in to see me, after which time I will call Jim in, Ray and I thought the better procedure might be to leave him on the open listing and then after I have met with him I will notify the Personnel Board to take him off. That way Hoder won't feel as though someone leaked information to the Personnel Board before he even had a chance to defend himself to me, etc.

I spoke to Ed Fialkowski today and asked him to make sure that they put a question mark after Jim's name, with regard to a future assignment. [REDACTED]

Jim's weight is enormous. Millard had said he thought his waist was 50 inches and I firmly do believe that. I suggested to Ray Cusack that they simply allow the process to continue and let's see whether or not any pastor is willing to take Jim.

RE: Extra Funding for Sabbaticals because of consolidations and closings (Special Considerations)
DATE: July 20, 1990

Because the Sabbatical Board had recommended and the Cardinal has approved enough sabbaticals for '90-'91 fiscal year to use up the entire budget there was need to provide opportunities for priests in transition. The Cardinal promised that we would make the sabbatical opportunity available to those affected by recent closings and consolidations.

Funding for these Special Considerations is to come from the PRMAA. Enclosed is their April 6th memo. You will notice that the money is to be requested through your office. CDM will administer the check requests for program expenses only through the University of St. Mary of the Lake Business Office, which will then be reimbursed by the funding provided. Your office will administer the salaries for these priests.

The estimate was for 5 to 8 priests. To this date we have approved special consideration sabbaticals for the following people in this present fiscal year '90-'91:

- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

The Cardinal wasn't quite sure what it was all about, but he asked me to contact [REDACTED] and see what information he has. The Cardinal said that I could feel free to tell [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] said I could talk to him, but the Cardinal wants me to leave out any mention of the alderman, etc. The Cardinal also suggested that I speak to [REDACTED], to see if he has any such information.

RE: James Hoder

1. I spoke to [REDACTED] today. [REDACTED] said that he had some information that he did not want any one else to know about. He told [REDACTED] that the State's Attorney has been investigating Hoder. They evidently have it on tape. Hoder is supposedly trying to make a buy with someone whom he doesn't realize is an undercover agent. Hoder drives around in two Mercedes cars and has phones in them and does his buying and selling that way. The police are curious and are going to nail him. The local police commander in the Deering District knows what's going on. It could be that they are reluctant to move in on him because he is a priest and they might think that the diocese would try to cover for him, etc. I assured [REDACTED] that if Hoder is guilty of dealing in drugs that I would be the last one to try to cover for him. He should be nailed and I would certainly do nothing to stand in the way of the police doing their job. On the other hand, I would hope that the publicity would be kept to a minimum, if in fact, there is any truth to these charges, as it would be devastating for the Church. [REDACTED] said that someone tipped the police about Hoder selling drugs. [REDACTED] further added that people in that area are really down on both Millard O'Keefe and Jim Hoder, primarily because they have been trying to minister to the Spanish, etc.
2. [REDACTED] said that he is having lunch with [REDACTED] again this Wednesday and will try to get additional information. [REDACTED] will call me on Thursday to let me know what he comes up with. [REDACTED]
3. After talking to [REDACTED] I called St. David's to speak to Sr. Leonette. She had called me about another matter and I simply returned her call but then in the course of our conversation I asked her if she has seen Jim Hoder recently. Sister said that Jim comes there on weekends. He is supposed on his sabbatical at Notre Dame, but he claims he has no place to go and so on weekends he returns to St. David. He still has his room there and the room is an absolute mess. It is chaos, with wine bottles, dirty clothes, all sorts of books on alcohol addiction, etc. I asked her if he also was on drugs, but she said she had no knowledge of that. She did say that he was out late Saturday night and didn't return until about 2 A.M. on Sunday. She saw him around 10 or 10:30 on Sunday at Church and he smelled of alcohol. She said that he is a very sick person.

Dear Fr. Wayne,

As of today I have finished the program at Hotel Dunes. Two weeks ago I talked with the secretary at Mumbelins about using the remaining money for this trip to Medjugorje. I have already paid the total amount of $423.00 to Wanderer Travel. I thought this was an excellent bargain, as well as a nice gift message. About 150 priests are going from across the country. If I could use the remaining money from the $5000.00, it would help. Thank you for all your work. Yours truly

Dear [REDACTED],

I wonder if you can do a little undercover work for me. One of our priests, Rev. James Hoder, has experienced a lot of personal difficulties [REDACTED]

The Cardinal received word through a confidential source last August that the police were supposedly keeping Fr. Hoder under surveillance. He was suspected of dealing in drugs, operating out of a Mercedes he owned, using his car phone to buy and sell. The Cardinal was informed that the State's Attorney Office is also involved. The informant was quite insistent that this information and his identity remain confidential, but we have no reason to question his integrity.

Would you have any way of checking this out without causing any problem either for the informant or the police operation, if in fact, there is one under way? I can assure you that if Fr. Hoder is dealing in drugs, the Archdiocese will give its complete cooperation to the civil authorities involved in any way requested.

1. I received a call from Joe Grembla, the Dean, this morning. He had been speaking to Millard O'Keefe, the pastor at St. David's. Millard heard through someone that either I or someone else in authority mentioned that Jim Hoder was going to return to St. David's. This was very upsetting to Millard and he pleaded with Joe to intervene, so that this would not happen.

2. I told Joe that I knew absolutely nothing about this and I certainly had never made any commitment to Jim or anyone else about him returning to St. David. On the contrary, I would strongly advise that this not be done. Where he should go, I do not know, but I see absolutely no reason for him to return to St. David. Millard has enough difficulties of his own without asking him to put up with Jim and all of his problems, particularly since Jim has already been there over the five-year term.

3. I told Joe that I would be in touch with you. I would appreciate it if you would give me a call and let me know where things stand as far as Jim is concerned. I presume he is finished with his sabbatical and I just wondered whether he is on open listing. Whatever information you can give me will be appreciated and I will forward it to both Millard and Joe.

2. However, in the light of Millard O'Keefe's present physical condition, I suggested that it might be better to leave Jim at St. David's, but make it quite clear that it is only going to be a temporary thing and that we expect him to be in the regular June change process.

Dear Ken,

This is just a note letting you know what is happening with me.

My sabbatical finished officially February 15, 1991. Since then I have been helping out at St. David's. At first there was a good possibility that I might stay there full time if Fr. Millard O'Keefe were to go for treatment of some kind.

I presume there is not going to happen. In any case, I will continue to help Millard out until June. Then I have a chance.

to do a part of my sabbatical which I couldn't do in January, due to my father's illness +
death. This is to travel by car in Mexico for 2-3 weeks. I feel this would enrich my service to the Mexican community.

After this trip, I would still like to continue in Spanish work.

One other item - Millard hasn't had any money to pay me, except $2500 per Sunday mass. ~~After~~ since February. If I could have some money from somewhere, I would appreciate it. Thank you for your in many ways thankful

1. In your memo of 5/23/91, you attached a copy of Jim Hoder's letter of May 14 in which he inquires about salary, etc. You asked whether there is anything you should be doing.
2. With regard to Jim's future assignment, I had already sent a memo to Ed Fialkowski on May 6 suggesting that Jim follow the usual procedure for re-assignment.
3. With regard to Jim's request for a salary for the last three months that he has been at St. David, I'm not sure just what ought to be done. I do have a few questions -- namely,
 - A. I think Jim was on one of those special sabbaticals. Who was paying him during this period, and would they be willing to continue for these three months?
 - B. Did Jim acutally work full-time at St. David, or was he just filling in when needed?
 - C. Does Millard O'Keefe think Jim should be given a full-time salary from some source or other?
4. If the answer to #C is in the affirmative, then I would suggest that Millard give Jim whatever he has coming, and then if he will let me know the amount, I will ask PRMAA to reimburse the parish.

RE: James Hoder

1. George Kane called in his capacity as chairman of the Personnel Board. He was getting ready to go to the meeting and wanted to know what I thought about Jim Hoder going to St. Joseph's in Wheeling. After reflecting a moment, I told George that I would be opposed to such an appointment. I mentioned in confidence to George that my opposition would be based on some factors pertaining to Jim and other factors pertaining to a situation that has nothing to do with Jim and which could create problems down the line. George accepted that and said he would so notify the Board.

2. We then discussed where Jim could go. I told George that my own feeling was that we should not deal with him as a add-on, paying half the salary, etc. I think it is time that we begin to deal more forthrightly with those whom the Board considers to be difficult or impossible to place. If the Board can not find a pastor willing to take Jim, and if Jim himself cannot find a pastor willing to accept him and pay the full salary, then I think we ought to deal with Jim on the issue of whether or not he should remain in the active ministry. George agreed.

RE: James Hoder

1. The Cardinal called Jim Hoder in. Also present, were Andy and Bishop Goedert. He presented the ruling of the Commission. Jim Hoder was surprisingly strong in his defense. He told us that he had done everything that he had been asked to do when he admitted to this relationship with [REDACTED]. We agreed. [REDACTED]

2. Jim went into describing his own physical background, his break down in 1983 and how his focus was very divided for four years after that. He mentioned that he has been taking care of his father, has been his main emotional support. Jim also mentioned that he had let the Lord into his life in 1974 and had been Charismatic since that time. He did not know where [REDACTED] presently lived.

3. Jim argued his position very well. His main defense was that he had done everything that he had been asked to do. The Cardinal pursued the point and said he would have to be removed from the parish temporarily perhaps, depending [REDACTED]

4. Jim acquiesced nicely and said "Fine, then I'll do it". We'll take care of his salary. The meeting came to a close on an upbeat note.

RE: James Hoder

1. Fr. Casey Czatkowski, Jim Hoder's pastor, called today to ask what is happening with Jim. Can he count on him for the future? I told him that I would be back to him within two days.

2. He also told me that he has been paying Jim's salary for the past three months, ever since he left the parish. I checked my records and found out that we have been paying him as well. I told Casey not to send any more money to James Hoder and that he would be reimbursed for what he has already sent him. Hoder has been receiving two checks and has said absolutely nothing about it. This is my fault for not checking with Casey earlier, but I'm also a bit upset with Jim not calling it to my attention. I will contact Hoder and tell him that he has to pay back that salary to the parish over the last three months. He shall have to send the check through me. If he does not, then his next three months will be cut off and I shall take that money and repay the parish myself.

Most important rule: Both resident and monitor desire to make this monitoring successful. Neither resident nor monitors want problems to develop and so, if a problem ever develops, it will be discussed in a non-punitive way -- realizing that there are circumstances that can develop that are beyond the control of the resident.

To better insure that no problems develop, resident will meet with monitor or director about his day to day schedule, making explicit the details of that day's monitoring. The monitor and resident will decide on the time and place for telephone contact, which will be recorded in daily protocol. This will help to clarify telephone contact and reduce to a minimum honest but confusing judgments on the resident's part.

I full understand the need of the Archdiocese to respond to this present concern. I wish to be a priest, and to continue my ministry as soon as possible. I also recognize that I am entitled to be treated "fairly and compassionately" and that it is necessary for me to adhere to the regulations set forth.

Penalties for non-compliance with phone monitoring without sufficient reason will be the loss of next days traveling privilege. Breaking any of the more serious rules of house or unsupervised contact with minors would have more serious consequences.

Dear Cardinal Bernardin,

I am writing this letter to let you know where I am at in regards to [REDACTED] where I would like to be in the future.

I have been a priest for 17 years. I have served many different communities in this period -- people from many different cultures, languages, and values. I have grown personally and professionally by these many varied parish experiences. Although there was a period of time that I was unable to work at my best, this time is behind me. I look forward to many more years of successful ministry.

When you again choose to assign me to parish ministry, I can assure you that my professional and personal conduct will be exemplary, and with the holistic care I am now receiving, I hope to continue in ministry for the remainder of my life. Re: Rev. James Hoder

A client of mine, Fr. James Hoder, is presently receiving a salary through the Pastoral Center. [REDACTED]

In 1991, from February through July, a total of six months, Hoder was out of an assignment and received no salary at all. We have a tentative policy in place at this time which is being studied by the Cardinal. That policy states that when a man is in an unemployable state, he should not receive a full salary, but, according to Canon Law, is entitled to some stipend from the Archdiocese for living purposes. The suggestion has been made that he receive the same as a disabled priest. I am led to believe that that amounts to $450 per month.

I cannot go back to the Pastoral Center at this time and ask them to issue a check for $2,700. That money is coming to Hoder, however, in justice. Would it be possible for the PRMAA to issue a $2,700 check to James Hoder for past services? Or if not directly to James Hoder, could it be issued to our office and I would turn it over to James? That way we might avoid getting involved in the whole tax business. He will, of course, pay taxes and Social Security on that amount of money.

Please check this out and be in touch with me whenever you can. I do appreciate your attention to this matter.

I met with James Hoder on 4/28 and we talked about his future in ministry. I proposed the following to him:

1. That he would be allowed to help out at St. Michael the Archangel parish, where Jack Tilford is pastor. This would take place on Sunday mornings when he could say one of the Spanish Masses and perhaps the Slovak Mass, which Hoder claims he can do adequately. Jim will retain his [REDACTED], although his hours off will be re-negotiated. He is not to get involved with parishioners in any prolonged relational way.
2. This Sunday assignment will run until the end of August, at which time we will review it and see how things have gone. I will continue to stay in touch with Jack Tilford regarding Jim Hoder.
3. I will notify Jack of what has happened to Jim and Jim will explain it as well.
4. Hoder will not accept any salary or remuneration from St. Michael's except for Mass stipends. Tilford is strapped at present and can use this help. I told Hoder not to contact Tilford until I have had an opportunity to speak to him.

[REDACTED] Jim Hoder is bi-lingual. This employment would be acceptable to Hoder and would help pick up his salary. The university hospital is an 800 bed hospital, but this position as I said would be part-time.

Re: James Hoder
5/13/92

At the Senate meeting on May 11, 1992, I spoke to Jack Tilford at St. Michael's about Jim Hoder. Jack said he would accept Jim's help on Sunday morning, according to the restrictions that I would lay down. I called Jim Hoder today to tell him to contact Jack Tilford and I explained once again the parameters of our agreement.

I have a feeling that Jim Hoder actually talked to Jack Tilford before I did, but he says he did not. At any rate, the parameters are:

1. That Jim Hoder would work with Jack Tilford on Sunday morning. Jack would assign him a Mass or two. When Jack finally sets up a second Spanish Mass, perhaps Jim could take that Mass as well.
2. Jim is not to be paid by Jack Tilford but is to receive his stipend for the Mass as is customary.
3. This arrangement will be in place up until September 1st at which time we will review it.

In the meantime I asked Jim Hoder to follow up on the part-time offer at University of Illinois hospital. He said that he is making an appointment to speak to the woman in charge over at the John Paul II Center.

Dear Jack,

We talked on Monday, May 11, about the possibility of Jim Hoder coming to help you out. I informed Joe Bennett that he would be working with you. Jim has made some big strides in his own personal story over the past few months and we think he is ready to start to move back into some kind of priestly ministry at this time. As I said, he will be going there on Sunday morning to help you out in whatever Masses are necessary. If you later on put on another Spanish Mass, Jim possibly could help you with that.

Jim is not to stay overnight at the parish but is to go there on Sunday morning and return to his present residence on that same Sunday morning. He is not to receive any pay from you, nothing more than just the stipend that he gets for the Mass. Jim's salary is being picked up in other ways at this time.

He is not to involve himself in work other than what is immediately associated with the celebration of liturgy in your parish. I will be in contact with you periodically to see how Jim is doing. I will also be talking to him about how he is faring at your parish. If anything happens that you are uncomfortable with, don't hesitate to bring it up to Jim. And then we can all discuss it together.

I hope this works out to give you a little relief in the work at St. Michael's. I'll be in touch.

Dear Jim,

As per our conversation on May 13, I am asking you to contact Jack Tilford of St. Michael the Archangel parish to do weekend work. At the start, you will have one, perhaps two, Masses on Sunday morning. According to our agreement, you will not stay overnight at the parish, but will go there on Sunday morning and return [REDACTED] when your duties are complete in the morning. [REDACTED]

You are to receive no additional compensation for your work at St. Michael's. I am instructing Jack to give you a stipend for your Mass, but no other stipend for working on Sunday. You will continue to receive a full salary from our office and that should be sufficient.

I will stay in contact with Jack Tilford to see how you are doing at St. Michael's. [REDACTED]

I think, Jim, that you have made a good deal of progress in the last few months and it is my hope that that progress will be demonstrated in your work over at St. Michael's. In September, when we review the situation at St. Michael's, if all has gone well, then we can look to extending your participation in ministry in some other way in the future. Re: Jim Hoder

6/24/92

██████████ called me from Catholic Charities today to talk about Jim Hoder. We had been pursuing a part-time chaplaincy for Jim at the University of Illinois Hospitals. The offer to Jim Hoder at this time is that he would work four hours on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday each week, and also be on calls on those same three days. He would work out his protocol with ██████████

Jim Hoder will find out what the pay is for that job, and we will deduct that amount from his present salary. In other words, we will make up to Jim whatever lacks in his total pay. This may sound confusing, but we will work it out.

██████████ will sit down with Jim Hoder and explain what the expectations are. Jim Hoder will also meet with the staff over at the hospital to do the same. This could be a good solution for ministry for Jim. He does speak Spanish and a bit of Slovak as well.

SUBJECT: Jim Hoder

FROM: Reverend Edwin M. Conway ED

TO: Reverend Pat O'Malley
Reverend John Canary
Reverend Andrew McDonagh

It is my understanding that there has been some final arrangements made for Jim Hoder to begin a limited chaplaincy at Illinois University Hospital Center. Starting August 1, Jim will work Sunday, Monday and Tuesday for four hours each day. The rest of the time will be filled by Father Elliot who is already on the pastoral staff at St. Luke's Hospital. We are fortunate also that a permanent Deacon, Tom Coffey, who has training in clinical pastoral education will do some of the pastoral care as well as coordinate and recruit Eucharistic Ministers that can be utilized by all the chaplains.

I presume this meets with your approval.

Dear Jim,

I got your notice of August 8 that you're beginning at the University of Illinois. Please let me know if you will be receiving that $500 for the month of August. If not for the month of August, then when does it begin? I need to rearrange the salary with the Archdiocese.

Re: James Hoder
[REDACTED]

Ed Conway had received a call from [REDACTED] who is the director of Pastoral Ministry at the University of Illinois at Chicago and for the hospital as well. She is the one who agreed to take on Jim Hoder in a part-time capacity, working in the chaplain's office.

She is extremely concerned about Hoder at this time, mainly because she is receiving communications from a Fr. [REDACTED] who is the chaplain there, as well as from Deacon [REDACTED], who is also a chaplain. They feel that Hoder is not doing his work. On one occasion recently when they came into the office he was sitting in his chair with his coat over him, almost like in a fetal position. They think he might be severely depressed. At any rate, he is not doing the work that he was contracted to do. [REDACTED] will confront him on this.

[REDACTED] also said that she spoke to Carol Fowler about what she should know about Jim Hoder regarding his background. I explained to [REDACTED] that, for some reason, I did not inform her of Hoder's background. I should have informed her at the time, but I guess I presumed that she knew. That was my fault and so I informed her about as much as I thought she needed to know about his background and why he was in the situation where he is at right now. She feels she may have to share that with the Administration at the Hospital, although she does not know exactly with whom. I told her I felt she also had to do that and I would work with her to inform them. Again, I told her that we would be meeting with Hoder today to talk about this matter [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] will confront Hoder next week on the question of his not doing the work. She will contact me beforehand, before she speaks to the hospital authorities as to what should be said and to whom it should be said.

Later on the 13th, Andy McDonagh and I met with Hoder [REDACTED]. We tried to impress upon him the need to be very active and alert in his work at the hospital. He has a tendency to let up once the initial excitement is over. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] We also stressed the importance of wearing his collar to be known as a priest. His future in ministry will depend on the report we get back from the hospital.

We explained to Jim that we are going to be telling his superiors at the hospital about his background - something we should have done at the very start. Jim acknowledged that he does not go into the pediatrics area nor work with young people. It may end up that they will not want him once they know of his background. We will deal with that when we come to it.

Re: James Hoder

I spoke to [REDACTED] who is Jim Hoder's superior in his ministry at the University of Illinois Hospital. [REDACTED] spoke with Fr. Hoder on Monday, Nov. 23, to confront him with the information about his reportedly bad work habits. She talked about the incidents that were reported to her by other members of the staff. After discussion with Hoder, she concluded that there was a misunderstanding and a miscommunication. She did exhort him in the future to stay home if he is not able to walk and get to do his rounds.

She also indicated to him that there is no immediate authority over him in the hospital setting, so he needs to be a self-starter. She reiterated what we had told Fr. Hoder the week before when those complaints first came in. He needs to do everything at the very best capacity.

I also spoke to Fr. Paprocki today and asked him to send a letter to Hoder withdrawing his limited faculties at the University of Illinois Hospital and I asked him to send a copy to [REDACTED]

Dear Father Hoder:

As explained to you by Father Patrick O'Malley, Vicar for Priests, it has become necessary to place you on administrative leave from all ministry. Accordingly, the authorization for limited ministry indicated in my letter to you dated October 8, 1992 is hereby rescinded. In particular, you are to discontinue ministry at the University of Illinois Hospital. In addition, your faculties as a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago are revoked for the time being in accord with canon law, especially canons 764 and 967 §2.

You are asked to return your celebret card to Father O'Malley or me at your earliest opportunity.

Decisions about your future will depend upon further inquiry and assessment.

Please know that you will be remembered in my prayers.

To Whom It May Concern:

I was assigned as pastor of Assumption BVM parish in August of 1984. Rev. James Hoder was already serving an assignment here as associate pastor when I arrived. He left for another assignment in 1985. I have been here ever since.

During the time when we were both assigned here and in these subsequent seven years, I have never heard from anyone in the parish or neighborhood of any impropriety -- sexual or otherwise -- with regard to Fr. Hoder. In these past few years, everyone has become sensitized to the possibility of scandals and this neighborhood is at least as rife with rumors as any other. Nevertheless, I have neither personally heard nor heard from anyone else about any impropriety on Fr. Hoder's part.

It is my understanding that Fr. Hoder was "pushed" into working with young people after a couple of years of his being assigned here. Some of the staff at that time thought that he should work with the eighth grade. He confined himself to teaching religion and to a couple of group trips. Later, because one of the eighth graders was also gang-involved, he became friends with various members of a local gang. I think that even Fr. Hoder himself would now agree that he was a bit naive and ill-prepared to deal with these "street kids". They gave him and the parish quite a bit of trouble for a while, but no one has ever questioned his good will and right motivation in his work with them here.

Sincerely,

Reverend and dear Father O'Malley:

I am writing this letter at the request of Father James Hoder with whom I served for some years at St. Ita Parish in Chicago, Illinois. I do not recall the exact years, but I do know that it was in the early and mid-seventies.

In his phone call to me, Father asked that I address the issue of sexual misconduct on his part with minors. I never heard of any allegations from anyone about this matter. I did tell Father, and said that I would mention it in this letter, that a young lady had come to me regarding an accusation involving a former seminarian who was not a minor. The young man's name was [REDACTED] I spoke in confidence with another priest about the matter, and then brought it to the attention of the Archdiocesan officials. Father Hoder tells me that he was in counseling over this accusation and that this matter was fully known to the Archdiocese.

It is true that Father assocaited himself with younger people, and I did do some indirect checking into his behavior, but no one ever made any accusation of any sexual contact or misconduct. I did talk to Father and suggested that such associations were, from my standpoint, imprudent and could occasion misunderstandings. I did note that many of the other priests of his age who served at or lived at St. Ita Parish also had people in their living quarters. I recall that both Monsignor Picard and I were somewhat confused at the difference in lifestyle, but we both attributed it to our difference in age and formal education.

Other than the instance I mentioned above, no one ever brought anything to my attention regarding Father's behavior in that are of life nor did I personally observe anything.

Dear John:

Fr. Jim Hoder has been in contact with me, concerning his on-going discussions with the Vicar for Priests office. He has asked for canonical advice regarding the actions that were taken in his case, and any future actions that might result from pending allegations.

I have agreed to act as Jim's advocate. Therefore, I would ask that copies of any correspondence you send to Jim be sent to me. As you know, a person only has a brief period of time in which to lodge recourse against a decision. By sending me a copy of anything you send to Jim, we can avoid any undue delays, should Jim object to a decision that was made in his case.

Dear Pat,

Dec.2, 1992

My classmate, Jim Hoder told me that there are questions as to the quality of his ministry in the past, and he asked me to write my thoughts on the subject.

I remember the great enthusiasm with Jim came to the ministry and the joy he had in helping people and praying with them. We had regular contact then through the priests prayer group, and Jim would on occasion substitute for me when I needed supply help.

Jim had a series of difficult assignments and I remember his frustration as the joy of his work was taken from him. In particular I remember the enthusiasm with which he served the Slovak senior citizens of Assumption parish. He was in the process of learning Slovak when the Mass was cancelled and the community dissolved.

I think that Jim brings some great gifts to the ministry. He is very intelligent, and thus he is an insightful preacher. It also has given him a great facility for languages. He speaks Spanish with real fluency and understanding. He is also a very good listener and has always exhibited a great kindness for senior citizens.

It is my prayer that his enthusiasm can be rediscovered and his considerable gifts can once again be of service to the Church.

I also pray that despite the difficulty of your work, you will enjoy the peace of Christ this Christmas.

Fr. O'Malley,

In our last meeting at your office, a question was raised about there being others who were minors coming forward with allegations. I believe not. I have contacted all the priests that I have been assigned with, plus two religious women, and asked them to address this concern. They are: Mrs. [REDACTED], [REDACTED], [REDACTED], + [REDACTED], + Mrs. [REDACTED] + [REDACTED] you will be receiving their responses soon.

Secondly, the issue was raised about my faithfully following the then Vicar for Priest's instructions at St. David. I did. Fr. O'Keefe, Sr. Jonette, + the housekeeper are also responding to this concern.

I hope this will be helpful

Rev. James Hodan was associate pastor at St. Ila Parish 1975-1981. During that time I was in residence at St. Ila. I never once heard any complaint about his dealings with the parishioners - young or old - esp. in the moral area. I can say the same in my official capacity as Vicar General. (I am writing this letter at the request of Father Hodan).

Dear Father Paprocki:

On December 7, I received your letter of November 25, 1992 in which you placed me on administrative leave from my ministry at the University of Illinois Hospital, and suspended my faculties in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

I accept your decision to rescind authorization for my limited ministry at the University of Illinois Hospital, pending further inquiry and assessment.

However, I ask you to revoke your decree of suspension. Since suspension from the exercise of ministry is a canonical penalty, which must be applied according to the norm of law, I believe that this penalty was illegitimately, and perhaps invalidly, imposed, according to cc. 1341 and 1347.

I make this petition in accordance with c. 1734. Since the postmark on the letter was December 1, 1992, and I did not receive the letter until December 7, the latter date will be considered as the date of reception of the decree.

I await your reply. I would also ask that you send a copy of your reply to Rev. Patrick R. Lagges, 155 E. Superior Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60611, who is acting as my advocate.

Dear Father Hoder:

I am writing in response to your letter of December 9, 1992 in which you asked me to revoke my "decree of suspension." In making this request, you indicated that, since suspension is a canonical penalty, you believed that this penalty was illegitimately, and perhaps invalidly, imposed, according to cc. 1341 and 1347.

In reply, I wish to clarify that my letter of November 25, 1992 in no way imposed a penalty of suspension in the sense of canon 1333. Rather, it was a revocation of faculties. The difference between the two may seem indistinguishable, but it is an important distinction since, as you point out, there are some essential steps which are required in order to impose a canonical penalty validly.

In contrast, the revocation of faculties is not a canonical sanction. As stated in the enclosed article by Father James H. Provost, Chairperson of the Department of Canon Law at the Catholic University of America, "Removing faculties is an administrative act. The diocesan bishop can remove faculties, as can another executive in the diocese authorized to do this" ("Faculties," Clergy Procedural Handbook [Washington, D.C.: Canon Law Society of America, 1992]).

As Father Provost indicates, even an administrative act has some procedural requirements when it may have an adverse effect on the individual. Accordingly, my letter revoked your faculties after you were heard by the Co-Vicars for Priests, Fathers Patrick O'Malley and John Canary and after they explained to you the reasons why it had become necessary to place you on administrative leave from all ministry. In particular, I note that canon 764 does not require the ordinary to state any reason for restricting or taking away the faculty to preach. In addition, canon 974, §1 says that the local ordinary is not to revoke the faculty to hear confessions habitually "except for a serious cause" ("nisi gravem ob causam"). Precisely what constitutes a "serious cause" is not specified, but would not necessarily require a finding that the priest was guilty of a canonical offense.

The position of the Archdiocese is that the nature of the allegations against you are such as to constitute a "serious cause" requiring the revocation of your faculties, at least for the time being. This should not be construed as a finding of guilt, but rather, that the allegation itself, along with the time and energy needed on your part to respond to further inquiry and assessment, present a serious obstacle to the exercise of priestly ministry.

Letter to Reverend James A. Hoder

For these reasons, my letter of November 25, 1992 remains in effect.

As you requested, I am sending a copy of this letter and other official correspondence with you to the priest you have appointed as your canon lawyer, Reverend Patrick R. Lagges.

With every best wish, I remain

Your Eminence:

In accordance with c. 1737, I am hereby petitioning for hierarchical recourse against a decree issued on November 25, 1992 by Rev. Thomas J. Paprocki. I received this decree on December 7, 1992. In this decree, Fr. Paprocki rescinded Archdiocesan permission for me to engage in limited ministry. At the same time, he removed the faculties granted to me by cc. 764 and 967.2.

The decree removing these faculties is at issue.

My reasons for petitioning that the decree be withdrawn are: (1) Removal of faculties which are granted by the law itself is a canonical penalty, according to c. 1333, since these faculties are not considered "favours" (cc. 76ff), but "rights" (c. 38). (2) While penalties can be inflicted administratively, proper procedure must be followed in doing so. This procedure was not followed in my case. (3) The decree did not fulfill the requirements of c. 51, since it did not state the reasons which prompted it. (4) The "serious cause" specified in c. 974.1 was not demonstrated.

Therefore, I request that you reverse the decree which Fr. Paprocki issued, removing those faculties granted me by the law itself.

As I stated in my letter of December 9, 1992, to Fr. Paprocki, I accept his decision to rescind authorization for my limited ministry at the University of Illinois Hospital, pending further inquiry and assessment.

I await your reply. I would also ask that you send a copy of your reply to Rev. Patrick R. Lagges, 155 E. Superior Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60611, who is acting as my advocate in this case.

To Whom It May Concern:

I was asked to share my observations regarding Father Jim Hoder while he was residing at St David's Parish at 3210 South Union, Chicago Illinois. It was my understanding that he was given certain directives by his superiors regarding his association with youth and minors. I was not informed of the details, I was only informed of just general house rules that Father Jim was to abide by.

During Jim's residency at St David, I was serving the parish in the capacity of Pastoral Associate. I worked with Jim for four years. My association with Jim was pleasant, cooperative, supportive, and very pastoral. He took his ministry seriously and carried out whatever he was asked to do.

To my knowledge, Father Jim carried out his directives regarding the minors while he was on the premises of St. David's parish. I have not seen the minors with Jim in the bedroom areas nor have I seen Jim entertain them in his living quarters with closed doors.

If I can be of further assistance, do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] Presently, I am a full-time student at Loyola University, Chicago.

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter at the request of Fr. James Hoder, who was my associate at St. David Church from 1985 until August, 1990. He has asked me to address two concerns that were raised by the Vicar for Priest's in a meeting that he had. These concerns had to do with Fr. Hoder's terminating of his relationships with certain young people from his previous assignment at Assumption parish, and his contact with people here at St. David.

As directed by Fr. Ventura, then Vicar for Priest's, Fr. Hoder was to terminate contact with several young people he had known from Assumption parish. Within a short period of time of about three months, he fulfilled this request. Secondly, as regards to visits of any people in our private rooms, I suggested to Fr. Hoder as a matter of prudence that he always keep his door open when having guests. He again was completely faithful in following this request in the time he was associate pastor at St. David's. Finally, no one has ever come forward to me with any complaint about Fr. Hoder's conduct with themselves. I hope that this letter will be of help to the Archdiocese in granting Fr. Hoder a future assignment.

Re: Father James Hoder

Dear Father O'Malley:

As you know, our office has been retained by Father James Hoder concerning the allegation that was reported to you in November 1992. We have advised Father Hoder not to make any direct response to you concerning this allegation. However, we would like to bring certain matters to your attention.

In 1986 or 1987, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Father Hoder also was asked to discontinue contact with certain individuals from the parish to which he was then assigned, which he did shortly thereafter.

[REDACTED] The fact that Father Hoder discontinued contact with the individuals at his then parish is corroborated by the letters of Father Millard O'Keefe and Sister Leonette from St. David. Father Hoder also asked the priests who have worked with him since ordination to comment on the possibility of other allegations. Their answers are on file. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

As for any legal ramifications, our office has advised Father Hoder that, as best as we can determine, there is no risk of any criminal prosecution arising out of either of the allegations since the statute of limitations has run on both of the allegations. In addition, our office has advised Father

Father Patrick O'Malley

Hoder himself and the Diocese are beyond any risk as far as a lawsuit with respect to the first allegation, and that there is only a very remote possibility of some civil action being filed on the second allegation. According to the information we have received, apparently neither of the two parties making allegations have ever indicated that they would take civil action against Father Hoder or the Diocese.

We believe that all of these facts point toward Father Hoder being favorably considered for a priestly ministry in the Archdiocese, and that the trials of the past year, [REDACTED] have made him a better priest than he has ever been.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to call us.

Sincerely,

Brent D. Stratton

From: Rev. Patrick O'Malley
Date: 2/19/94
Re: James Hoder

The Cardinal, Fr. Canary and I met with Fr. James Hoder on 2/18/94 to speak about the next step [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The Cardinal told Hoder that his presumption at this time is that Hoder would not be coming back into active ministry and that therefore we needed to begin to plan for some alternate work or ministry in the future. [REDACTED]

Hoder was not ready to discuss this step. Instead, he made a fervent plea for the removal of Canon 1044. He feels that he is psychologically capable of further ministry. It was pointed out to him that he had made this request once before. [REDACTED]

The upshot of the matter is that the Cardinal acknowledged Hoder's right to question the c. 1044 and to seek its removal. So the matter must now go back to the Chancellor, Rev. Thomas Paprocki, for his input. Somehow a way must be found for a review of this decision, which will be acceptable to both Hoder and ourselves. Therefore the outcome of the review of the decision would be binding on both parties.

In a later conversation with Fr. Paprocki, I suggested that the Cardinal request that this case go before the FRBD for a final recommendation. Paprocki seemed to think it would be appropriate.

Dear Jim,

I brought your most recently expressed concerns before the Advisory Board and the Cardinal this past weekend. They agreed that the situation of your being placed under Canon 1044 can be reviewed.

Because you are basically asking for a return to ministry and a removal from the prohibitions of Canon 1044, the Board felt it was appropriate that your request be brought before the Professional Fitness Review Board. The Cardinal agreed.

The next step will be for you to call for an appointment for you and your attorney to come to our office. There we will go over your files and designate which materials will be turned over to the PFR Board. Anything that has to do with treatment for mental health is of course privileged to you and you will have to look that matter over and decide whether and how you want it released. Give me a call when you get a chance and we will set up a time for you to come in.

Re: James Hoder

1 - Bernadette Connolly called today to discuss Jim Hoder's situation. Jim was back in Chicago for the Labor Day weekend. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He contacted Bernadette to say that he had been in an accident over the weekend, and he was unable to return [REDACTED] until his car was repaired.

Bernadette asked him if he was OK, and he said that he was fine. He had brought the car to a repair shop, and they told him it would be about a week before the repairs could be done.

Bernadette felt uneasy about this situation. She contacted a friend in the police department, and the policeman checked the records and there was no record of an accident. Bernadette found out that Jim's car had been towed by Lincoln Towing over the weekend from a lot on the north side of Chicago. Jim had not mentioned this to Bernadette. She was confused by these events, and she wondered if Jim was telling her the full truth.

I suggested to Bernadette that she call Jim and ask him to come in to see her on Wednesday morning. I suggested that she ask him to bring the police report of the accident. If he is unable to bring a report, I suggested she might share the information that she received from the policeman. Bernadette was hesitant to do this.

Bernadette felt that Jim should return [REDACTED] on Wednesday. I agreed with her. She said she would contact Jim Hoder and ask him to come in and meet with her on Wednesday morning. At that time, she would tell him that he needed to return [REDACTED] on Wednesday.

3 - [REDACTED] called on Tuesday, 9/6/94. He was concerned that Jim Hoder had not returned on time. He said that Jim Hoder called him one hour before he was due to arrive back [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said that he was not sure how much to believe of what Jim told him. [REDACTED] said that Jim is a very manipulative person.

I explained to [REDACTED] that Bernadette will meet with Jim tomorrow morning. We had made a decision that Jim would return to [REDACTED] on Wednesday. [REDACTED] said that he would pick Jim up at the airport.

4 - Bernadette called on Wednesday morning. Jim Hoder brought a police report. Bernadette told him that he would have to return [REDACTED] on Wednesday. Jim wanted to drive back in the car he had rented while his own car was being repaired. Bernadette said she thought he should return immediately by plane. She was concerned that otherwise Jim would be coming back to Chicago to get his car. From her conversation with Pat O'Malley, she felt that Jim should stay [REDACTED]

I spoke with Jim and told him that he would have to go back [REDACTED] today by plane. I told him that we would make arrangements to get his car down to [REDACTED] when it was repaired. Jim was not happy with this arrangement, but he was compliant.

CONFIDENTIAL 9/10/94

Tues: Sept 6th Jim Hodler called at 9:00 am to inform me that he was in a car accident on Monday evening 9/5 at 10pm on Belmont + Western. Jim stated "I was hit by a Mexican woman who was drunk. A Narc Officer passed by and said that the police would not come to the scene of the accident. Therefore I got the information from the other person and drove my car to the police station to file a report. I am going to take my car in for an oil change and then to the repair station."

- 10:30 a.m. - Jim arrived at my office and informed me that he dropped his car off at 2700 So. Halsted and rented a car. His car would be in the shop from 9/6 thru 9/16. He also informed me that he was trying to get a hold of Gulf insurance co. to report the accident. As Jim was leaving my office I observed that the rental car had no Chicago stickers nor Illinois plates. Jim stated that Gulf insurance co. was located in Texas.

11:15 AM - I called a friend of mine in the police department to run a check on Jim's license plate. The following information was reported back to me.

1.) Jim's car was towed on Sunday evening at 9:27 p.m. from 3350 North Broadway. The detective told me that this area was known as a drug dealing place. Jim's car was towed by Lincoln Towing Company. Jim picked his car up at 10:21 p.m. The detective also informed me that no accident report was on file for the accident on 9/5/94.

2) In reviewing 9/4/94 shift change report (see attached), Jim did not call in to inform staff of the changes in his schedule - i.e. car being towed etc. According to the shift change report Jim called in at 6:30 pm from the Music Box Theatre located at 3735 N. Southport and was going to see a film.

3) In reviewing the shift change report on 9/5/94, Jim called in at 7pm from Lincolnwood where he was visiting a friend. Jim never called in to inform staff of his car accident.

3. In view of the information I had received, I drove out to 2700 E. Halsted to check on Jim's car. Jim's car was there and damage was observed. (rear of the car).

4. I called J. John Canary to inform him of my concerns regarding this incident.

5. On 9/7/94 Jim came to my office with a police report. (see attached) Please observe that the police report is incomplete. Also note that the person involved in the report is listed as an Illinois address but with the New York (NY) plates. Also, the insurance company is not even listed for the other driver.

6. At 9:15am I spoke with [redacted] [redacted]. He agreed to pick up Jim at the airport. Also, [redacted] informed me that Jim is constantly out doing things which require one to have a lot of extra-cash available. [redacted] requested that perhaps I could attend a staffing regarding Jim's behavior.

In view of all the information obtained, I question the veracity of all this information that was reported by Jim. I spoke with Jim on 9/12/94 from St. James and his car should be ready on Friday 9/16/94. I told Jim that I would inform the Vicar about making arrangements about his car. Also, the entire evening of 9/6/94 I had received several prank calls at my home and church. I am not accusing Jim but I certainly question the entire incident. On 9/2/94 I again went to 2700 So. Halsted to inspect Jim's car. On the accident report Jim's address is listed under 3210 So. Union which is located in Chicago and is St. David's parish. However, Jim's vehicle sticker 94-95 is the suburb of Oak Park.

After several attempts, Fr. Hoder finally was able to get through to me today. I told him that I wished to acknowledge the fact that he is now earning money independently and that I would ask him to work with me to devise some kind of way that he can contribute to offset costs for his stay in St. Louis. I wanted to get Fr. Hoder involved in making some kind of pro-active offer. He agreed to work something up and get it to me as soon as possible. Once I receive it then he and I can discuss it and come to some kind of conclusion. He said he would do that before next week.

Dear Jim,

As John already informed you, I am scheduled on February 18th to appear before the Professional Fitness Review Board. At that time, I have been asked by the Cardinal to share information on your situation. This is in keeping with the Cardinal's promise that all past cases would be reviewed by the Fitness Review Board once it was up and running.

Because your situation was originally handled under our previous procedures (before the Fitness Review Board was organized), the Cardinal and his advisors feel the information ought to be shared anonymously with the Board.

With this letter, I am enclosing the full text I will use in my presentation to the Board. There are a few slight changes from the text John gave you. I will have to answer questions, of course, but I will not include substantially more than what this typed text contains.

Please read it over carefully. If you have any questions about it or if you wish to make any representations about it, feel perfectly free to get in touch and I will be open for discussion. This is a delicate matter and I want to do it in the fairest way possible.

I do not anticipate any great changes being suggested by the Board. I will of course take their recommendations to the Cardinal for his study and decision. His schedule is so crammed right now that it may take a while to get back to you with the final word. I'll speed the process up as best I can.

I will try to get in touch with you by phone before February 18th to get your reaction. But again feel free to call me if and when you like. John tells me you and he had a good meeting in St. Louis. I keep you in my prayers always.

Fraternally yours,

Fr. B was told to avoid company of minors. Regular monitoring meetings with VP (Ventura). Fr. B continued working in a parish setting.

In 12/86, the VP records that Fr. B was having work troubles (not of a sexual nature) in his parochial assignment. VP asks for another assessment. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] made no mention of paraphilia or sexual proclivities.

[REDACTED] Ventura continued to meet with Fr. B. regularly.

In 3/90, Fr. B's pastor had complaints about Fr.'s ministry and his focus on helping young people. Housekeeper also made some vague allegations of him being "gay", and entertaining young men, some of whom may allegedly have been minors, in his rooms. Pastor made no such allegation, but did feel Fr. B. lacked direction and purpose and was ineffective.

Ministry: As of 11/92, the Archdiocese determined no more ministry possible. A review of this decision was petitioned by Fr. B and, in 4/94, the canonical ruling was reconfirmed. As of 2/95, no more ministry in the future is envisioned.

Living: Since withdrawal in 11/91, he had been living in the [REDACTED] Retreat House setting until 5/94. Since then, he resides at a supervised & monitored project out of state seeking to develop skills for other work outside ministry.

Protocol: No unsupervised contact with minors, no presenting himself as a priest publicly. No priestly ministry.

Monitoring: Under our ongoing direction, he is monitored by the professional staff on site.

Dear Pat,

I had a fine meeting with John Canary this past week. I appreciate his care and understanding very much. Time prevented me from bringing up another concern of mine, which has been on my mind often since our meeting here this past October. My concern has to do with this.

Originally, [REDACTED] it was presented as a place to come to any receive job training. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] When this training was completed, I would be returning to Chicago. I have been here six months and I have received no job training, other than the few days that I received at my job. I began working at the beginning of November. In Your recent letter about paying some of the expenses has made it even more urgent for me to have an answer to my question. What is the point of my continuing to stay at Wounded Brothers if all I am to do is go looking for work? How long am I going to stay here? And what will determine my returning to Chicago?

If I am not to be back in priestly ministry, yet I am not being asked to resign, then I want, I need clearer direction in terms of job training. If I am to work for the diocese in a non-ministerial job, what job will that be, and how can I prepare for that job now? If I am not going to be given a diocesan job, then why am I working here in St. Louis, when I will then have to begin to search for a job again when I return to Chicago. As I see it, it makes no sense for the diocese to have spent $12,000+ this past six months for me to receive nothing more than room and board here in St. Louis.

In closing I would like to say that I have learned much about myself this past six months. I have learned that I can go out and find a job. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] But I am very lonely and depressed here. I do not see that as a very healthy state of mind to be in. I miss my family and my friends. I miss Chicago very much. But most of all I miss my freedom. I still want to be a priest. But I know that circumstances beyond anyone's control has made that just about impossible in the United States. It has presented me with a real crisis of faith. I have been hoping, praying for some kind of miracle, I guess. That is why I even agreed to come down here. But soon I feel it will be time to move on to something new. I need to put these extremely painful last three years to some closure. Any help that you can give me in that regard would be very much appreciated.

Yours truly,

Jim Healy

At 7:30 on 2/14/95 I spoke to Hoder by phone regarding the letter he had received from me along with the revised summary which I will be presenting to the Professional Fitness Review Board on 2/18/95.

Hoder agreed with the changes that I suggested from a previous summary which Fr. Canary had brought to him on a recent visit to St. Louis. We went over the paper and he agreed that I could go ahead with it.

Hoder also said that he would be sending me his proposal for the use of the money that he is making at this time vis a vis the expenses that he is incurring.

Dear Jim,

In response to your letter of Feb. 2, may I offer the following observations.

Before going to [REDACTED] you were informed that there was no future in priestly ministry for you in the Archdiocese. Sending you [REDACTED] was meant to help provide an atmosphere in which you would focus on getting gainful employment outside the Church structure. You have shown that you can do that - as you state in your letter.

You are now asking for some clarification on what the future holds for you. I can give some you some sense of the future, but to some extent that depends on you and your choices.

1. If you choose to remain a priest which you have a right to do,
 - you will not be in ministry;
 - you will live in a supervised setting with suitable monitoring for the foreseeable future;
 - [REDACTED]
 - besides the room and board mentioned above, the Archdiocese will provide benefits, and a modest stipend, if necessary, for expenses;
 - you will be expected to get a job in the public sector, and you will be expected to pay a reasonable percentage of your living and therapy costs based on your income.

All this could take place either in Chicago or elsewhere, depending on circumstances. [REDACTED]

2. If you choose to resign from priesthood and seek laicization,

- you will be able to live on your own;
- you will not be monitored by the Archdiocese [REDACTED]

- with some restrictions on the types of work you might pursue (none with minors), you will be able to seek employment in Chicago or wherever;
- you would owe nothing back to the Archdiocese.

While some aspects of these options may not be easy to consider, the choice is yours to make, Jim. What we have been trying to do is show you that, [REDACTED] you are able to make it on your own and thus make the right choice for your future. You have more confidence now than you had before. Your desire for more autonomy is stronger now than it was before. I hope your options are clearer.

The information in this letter is not the last word by any means. It is the beginning of a dialog. You undoubtedly will have comments, questions, and reactions. Please don't hesitate to be in touch as we pursue this question further.

Hoder has been very frightened now that the time for making his decision is getting closer. He hopes that he will not be a failure. He has avoided decisions most of his life and knows that that kind of escape behavior has to stop.

He is to call me on Saturday, 8/12, to set a final date. I encouraged him to set the date no earlier than 9/23, when I would be returning from my vacation. He agreed that was a good time.

Re: Rev. James Hoder

On 10/7 I met with James Hoder in the office. He is back from St. Louis and living [REDACTED] in Mundelein under protocol as directed by Bernadette Connolly.

We talked about the need for Hoder to move on at this time. He still finds this a very difficult thing to talk about and is very frightened. It is my feeling however that if he does begin to make steps towards re-ordering his life, then he will not feel so frightened.

In the course of our discussion we covered the following matters:

1. As far as training for the future, Jim would like to look into the possibility of getting some training in library science. He will be talking to the people at Rosary College to find out what it is that he will need, what type of grant/in/aid help is available, and what our help might be in this regard.

4. [REDACTED]
I told him to start looking for an apartment or to continue the dialog with his brother to see if his brother would allow him to move in there. I encouraged Hoder on this saying he would have a measure of independence much quicker were he to establish a residence.

5. With regard to job counseling, I told him that I would talk to [REDACTED] Company and see if [REDACTED] would be able to help him.

I told Jim that we needed to have all of this in place no later than six months. Since he returned on Sept. 23, we would hope to have this completed no later than March 23, 1996. Jim was relieved at the fact that we were giving him a few months since he was under the impression that it would only be a few weeks.

Jim asked for permission to go on vacation and I told him to be in touch with Bernadette Connolly, the monitor, to set up whatever protocols are necessary. We tentatively set up a meeting for Oct. 23, but I heard later from Jim that he would not be able to make that. When he returns to Chicago, we will re-set that time.

Dear Jim,

I wanted you to have a summary of some of the things we discussed at our last meeting on Oct. 25th.

[REDACTED]

2. Residence: This was a difficult subject to discuss. It obviously is somewhat symbolic of this whole direction away from priesthood. I think I understand its significance for you.

You have talked to your younger brother about the possibility of living with him. That dialog apparently is still alive. I advised you to start looking for an apartment. You indicated that something in Oak Park might be a preference. I told you that we would be able to help you with initial rent costs and the furnishings.

3. Educational training: You are to call Rosary College around the 30th to see about the courses on library science. You will find out what kind of monies are available in grants and how we might help in this regard. You said you are currently enrolled for computer classes in a local college.

4. Finances: You have made plans to consult a financial advisor about your own situation.

5. Job procurement: I gave you the name and number of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who has agreed to see you. Please call him as soon as possible. And may I remind you again to dress up nicely for this meeting since it will be a formal business setting from the outset.

7. Legal representation: I reminded you to be in touch with Pat Reardon at [REDACTED] who will help you through this process.

[REDACTED]

You and I will meet again on Friday, November 3 at 11:30 to go over what progress has been made.

Again I encourage you to use the energy you seem to have at this time to take care of the matters discussed above. Especially try to accomplish the hardest ones first.

Dear [REDACTED]

I received your letter concerning Jim Hoder. First off, I want to thank you for the letter. And I want to thank you for the support and encouragement that you express in that letter for Jim. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I know you guys have a very difficult life at this time. And yet somehow you seem to persevere, which is a tribute to your own strength and the grace of God.

With regard to Jim, his situation is a complicated one. There are many aspects of that situation that we need to consider. There is of course, the good of the priest himself, which is very important. But there is also the wider good of the Church. I know you understand the complications, probably better than most. In the present climate, we do not think there is a place for Jim in the active ministry. I know that is very difficult for him and others to hear, but it seems to be one of those truths that needs to be faced. That does not mean that he is a bad person. I do not believe that.

We are trying to work diligently and sensitively with him during this transition to make sure that he is treated justly. It will be painful, as you know. But I think, both for his sake and for the Church's sake, it should go forward. I know that I do want to help him, but I also acknowledge that the help we offer Jim may be seen as really pushing him further away. Obviously he needs your ongoing support and prayers.

Again, thank you for your letter. I'm sorry that my response cannot answer adequately all your concerns. I will keep Jim and you in my prayers and I ask the same from you.

2. Hoder is voluntarily taking a computer class at Triton.
3. Hoder has made inquiries at Rosary about the requirements necessary for a degree in library science. There would be course work required, but there is the possibility of available grants to help pay for the courses. Reardon and Hoder will have to discuss whether it is more important to get this training at this time or to get a job. That discussion is ongoing.

Hader
2/3/19/96

It was 2 a.m., the usual time for my sadness and anger to visit me. I had been tossing and turning for an hour. I was angry at myself, at God, at the world. Finally I cried out in my desperation, "God, if You don't save me from this, I am not going to serve you any longer as Your priest!"

What was the cause of my deep, dark despair? What was driving me to give up my priestly vocation, my most precious possession? Was it alcohol? Sex? Gambling? The work? no, it was none of these. Rather it was something that people make jokes about. They make light of. It was the fact of my obesity.

At this ^{AT} point in my life, I was more overweight than I had ever been ^{before} in my life. I do not know how much I weighed. I gave up wanting to know when my scale (up to 300lbs) no longer registered an accurate ^{wt} weight. I used to joke with another priest (who died as a result of alcoholism) that outside my bathroom there was this pile of destroyed scales, victims of my not so amusing anger. We would then laugh. At the time it seemed funny. It isn't now.

Obesity, overweight, pleasingly plump, girthful, fat, and the latest adjective, morbidly obese, they all applied to me. It didn't seem right. It certainly wasn't fair. How could this have happened to one of God's priests? And what was I going to do about it? I had no idea. And not having any idea made me desperate. Each day I would wake up, promising myself, this is the day I am really going to begin my diet. I'm really going to do it. Yes, I will.

But I didn't. I couldn't. I would calculate the number of years I would need to diet, and I would despair. By noon time I would be in my crazy eating cycle. By evening I would again hate myself. I had failed again. I was a failure.

I would pray to God for strength to diet, to lose weight. "Give me the strength I had in 1963, age 14, when I lost 60 lbs, Lord. (Gained back.) Give me the strength I had in 1981, when I lost 80 lbs. (Gained back, ^{AND} ~~had~~ more) But I found no strength. I had no strength. This weight problem was stronger than I was, and I was getting weaker, day by day, and it was getting stronger. I was beginning to believe that only a death by cancer or some other debilitating disease was the only way I would solve my weight problem. I even imagined the pall bearers struggling with my coffin. God, I feel sorry for them. Maybe cremation.

If I am painting a dark picture for you, it is because it was dark for me. It was black as a night without a hint of moonlight. Think of your blackest hour, stare at it, in the honesty that only comes to us at 2 in the morning, honesty and feelings that can no longer be denied. That was me.

But just when it seemed that death would be a preferable blessing, when all I knew was my failure, my grief, my despair, in a meeting with Pat O'Malley ~~about another matter~~, a by-the-way moment of grace happened

I have to admit that I believed I knew everything there was to know about my eating disorder-everything except how to solve it. They say that Thomas Edison knew 10,000 ^{not} ways to make a light bulb, and I knew as many ways not to deal with my eating disorder. But I went, and I sat, and I listened, and my eyes were opened.

Today, March 8, is my 3 month anniversary of following a food plan, and following the 12 step recovery program. I cannot find words to express the gratitude and joy and serenity that I am beginning to feel in my life after 40+ years of crazy, out of control eating. I say 40 years because even before I began grade school at Presentation I was having problems with food. Forty years, echoes of Exodus, the chosen people in the desert. 1954 to 1995- it was a long, long time.

To close, I know that there are other priests out there who are smiling, joking, jovial in public about their eating disorder. I was that way myself. I also know that there can be an incredible rage inside, that only another compulsive overeater like me can understand. YOU may have lost hope for an answer. YOU may have given in to despair about overcoming this crippling disease. But I want to tell you that there is hope. I have found it for myself. There is a way to return from the early grave you may be heading for. There is recovery, a day at a time, if you choose, from our life-long eating disorder. "If today you hear His voice, in my words, in my story, harden not your hearts!" Call. There is help.

Dear Jim,

As I told you in our conversation, this is the process for petitioning to get out from under Canon 1044:

1. Write a formal letter to the Cardinal (copies to Bishop Goedert and Vicars for Priests) asking him to lift the restrictions you are presently facing under Canon 1044.
2. Mention that you would like to be able to meet face to face (if you indeed want to do so) with whomever he would designate to make recommendations on your request.
3. Usually, the Cardinal will ask the advice of the advisory board (Professional Responsibility Administrative Committee - PCAC). [REDACTED]

4. The Board makes the recommendation to the Cardinal. He has the ultimate say.

Jim, I do want you to get a fair hearing, but you should also realize that this appeal may not be responded to positively. If it is not, then you and I need to get on with our planning for the near future. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] You have undoubtedly made progress and have a healthier outlook at this time, so that end was accomplished. Whether it will result in changing our original plan, I cannot say. But please don't get your hopes too high. You don't need more disappointments. Hope you get that job driving.

Dear Cardinal Bernardin,

I would like you to reconsider and to remove the canonical penalty that you placed on me in December 1992. I am currently living at the Stritch retreat house and am not involved in ministry.

The last review of my status was in April 1994. Since that time I have made progress in the issues that have caused the diocese and myself concern in the past. I would also ask that a representative be appointed with whom I could meet in order to work out the process and the details for this review. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Dear Jim,

When you and Pat Reardon and I met on January 14th, I told you that this office would pay your tuition for the present term at the Adler School of Professional Psychology. I have since received the bill which you forwarded to me and it will be paid in the near future.

With regard to your request that this office pay your tuition for nine hours next term, I told you that I would have to bring that request before our advisory board (the Professional Conduct Administrative Committee). I made the proposal at yesterday meeting where it was rejected. The committee feels very strongly that a great deal of money has already been expended in an attempt to help you "get on your feet." The committee cited all the therapy and the training in tele-

Dear Jim:

The Office of the Chancellor has been informed that you have resigned officially from the active ministry as a priest and that Archbishop George has accepted your resignation. As you leave the active ministry, you may have some questions about the practical implications of your situation.

This change of status means that your faculties to minister as a priest are withdrawn. You are no longer authorized to exercise priestly ministry, to present yourself as a priest or as an official representative of the Archdiocese of Chicago or any component of it, or to wear clerical garb.

Your participation in the life of the Church is to be that of a Catholic layman, except that there are certain restrictions about Church employment and ministry for resigned priests. Hence, any ministerial celebration of the Sacraments or sacramentals is excluded. Of course, the Sacrament of Penance may be administered to one in danger of death. You are asked to consult with the Office of the Vicar for Priests or the Office of the Chancellor regarding the appropriateness of any other ministries in the Church.

Despite the official tone of this letter, please be assured of the gratitude of the Archdiocese for your service to this local Church.

In order to change your canonical status from cleric to layperson, you will need to seek dispensation from the obligations of priesthood through laicization. You can initiate such a process by speaking with Father Emmett Gavin, O.Carm., Vice-Chancellor. He can be reached at 312-751-8211. He is assisted in preparing these petitions by Father Robert J. Geisinger, S.J., Associate Chancellor. Contrary to some impressions, the Holy See is responding favorably to certain petitions. I am confident that Father Gavin and Father Geisinger will do all that they can to assist you with this process. If there are any further questions concerning your status, please do not hesitate to contact Father Gavin, Father Geisinger or myself.

Vice-Chancellor

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reverend Thomas J. Paprocki
Chancellor

Memo to the file
From: Larry McBrady
Re: Jim Hoder
Date: 1/8/98

This afternoon I received a call from Jim Hoder. Jim recently attempted to use his insurance card and was turned down. Upon checking with Gallagher-Bassett, he was told he had been removed from the program effective 12-1-98. I told Jim this was not correct and that some error had occurred. I assured Jim he would be reinstated. [REDACTED]

Jim pointed out that he has lost a full month of coverage. He asked to be extended for one additional month. I agreed to extend coverage to 6-15-99. After that time, he has the option of buying into our program for an additional six months. [REDACTED]

I contacted Alex Becker. He thinks he may have removed Jim Hoder's name even though he had not been given any authorization to do so. Alex will see to it that he is immediately reinstated.

Dear Jim,

I hope things are going well for you.

As you may recall, we extended your insurance for an additional month after it was learned that you were accidentally deleted from our list. I am writing to remind you that, per our agreement of January 8, 1999, your health insurance coverage will be terminated on June 15, 1999. You have the option of extending your coverage for an additional six months by paying to have the coverage continued. Please let me know if you are interested in the extension. If I do not hear from you I will assume you have made plans for your own coverage in some other program after June 15th.

If there is any way I can be of help to you, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the Allegation of Sexual Abuse of a Minor and summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Director of the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review, of Victim MM's statement given to Ms. McCluskey on December 13, 2007, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Fr. James Hoder. According to Victim MM's statement, the abuse began in 1976 when Victim MM was 17 years old. The alleged abuse began in 1976 and lasted until about 1981 and consisted of mutual masturbation, mutual oral sex and intercourse. According to the statement, Victim MM contacted Tom Ventura, Vicar for Priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago, to report the abuse by Hoder.

Conference Call

I arrived at the Vicar for Priests' Office just prior to 1:30 pm for the scheduled conference call with the former Rev. James Hoder. It was understood that Mr. Hoder would be at Mr. Patrick Reardon's office so that both would be a part of the conference call. Mr. Reardon called the Vicar for Priests' Office at 1:30 pm and stated that Mr. Hoder was with him.

The call was placed on speakerphone so that Rev. Edward Grace could explain to Mr. Reardon and Mr. Hoder that he would not be able to stay for the meeting, but that Rev. Vincent Costello would be present in his absence.

After introductions were made, Fr. Costello invited Mr. Hoder to listen to the allegation and to choose whether or not he wanted to make a response. Mr. Reardon then stated that he and Mr. Hoder spoke before the conference call began and agreed that they would most likely not make any response today.

I then proceeded to read  allegation against Mr. Hoder in its entirety.

After reading the allegation, it was agreed that I would send a copy of the allegation report to Mr. Hoder in care of Mr. Reardon.

When asked, Mr. Reardon reiterated that he and Mr. Hoder spoke before the conference call and decided that they would not make a response to the allegation.

Fr. Costello and I again thanked Mr. Hoder and Mr. Reardon for their time.

C. In the Matter of Rev. James Hoder [Resigned 1997] – PFR - 16
The Review Board was to conduct an Initial Review of [REDACTED] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor by the former Rev. James Hoder. A summary of the allegation is as follows: mutual oral sex and masturbation; Fr. Hoder showed [REDACTED] pornography.

Ms. McCluskey informed the Review Board that this allegation was initially scheduled to be read to Mr. Hoder on March 7, 2008. She and Rev. Edward Grace, Vicar for Priests, did speak with Mr. Hoder via phone on March 7th and explained the process to him. Ms. McCluskey informed the Board that he was clearly upset by this and expressed to Fr. Grace that he thought that this matter had been addressed in the past. During the March 7th phone conversation, Ms. McCluskey informed Mr. Hoder that he could not be forced to have [REDACTED] allegation read to him, but that it was his right to know of what he was being accused. Mr. Hoder broke down in tears on two different occasion during the March 7th phone call and asked if the conference call could be postponed until he had the opportunity to speak with a civil attorney. He said that [civil attorney] Patrick Reardon worked with him when he left the priesthood approximately 10 years ago. Mr. Hoder said that he would like to see if he could get into contact with Mr. Reardon and then reschedule the meeting to have [REDACTED] allegation read to him.

Ms. McCluskey informed the Review Board that [REDACTED] allegation was read to Mr. Hoder via phone on March 12, 2008. She then read Mr. Hoder's response to the Board. Ms. McCluskey informed the Board that she would schedule time to review Mr. Hoder's file in the Chancellor's Office.

Fr. Smilanic informed the Board of his knowledge that Mr. Hoder currently drives limousines at O'Hare

Due to the fact that there was not a quorum, the Board could not render a vote. However, the members present discussed the matter and the consensus was that it bears further investigation. The Board members present suggested that if this matter proceeded forward, that Ms. McCluskey do the following:

Hello Jac,

Patty and I are now working in our office with a professional investigation firm by the name of Hillard Heintze on the matters that we receive in our office re: alleged sexual abuse of children by clerics/lay/volunteers/religious.
Rick Lapinski, whom I've copied on this e-mail, is one of the investigators with Hillard Heintze.

Rich is working on a matter where we are trying to establish if a particular student [REDACTED] was working at Holy Name Cathedral in the 1970s. As per Rich, he spoke with someone at Holy Name who informed him that they only have records there dating back to 1990.

Would there be any such records in the Archives from Holy Name? Rich also asked if possibly there would have been some sort of records at Quigley noting if any students worked at Holy Name during the aforementioned time period.

Any information that you would have, or a different direction to try would be great.

Thanks Jac.

C. In the Matter of Rev. James Hoder [Resigned 1997] – PFR - 16

The Review Board conducted an Initial Review of [REDACTED] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor by the former Rev. James Hoder. A summary of the allegation is as follows: mutual oral sex and masturbation; Fr. Hoder showed [REDACTED] pornography.

Ms. McCluskey provided the Review Board with a verbal update of the review done of Fr. Hoder's file in the Vicar for Priests' Office.

[REDACTED] asked if [REDACTED] had signed his statement [report of his allegation against Fr. Hoder]. Ms. McCluskey explained that mistakes had been made in sending the final report to [REDACTED] via his civil attorney for his review and signature [the draft report was sent on two occasions instead of the final report with [REDACTED] changes]. As per Ms. McCluskey, the correct report was sent to [REDACTED] via his attorney the week prior.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note in response to your letter of April 4, 2008, regarding the matter of James Hoder who was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago but who resigned from priestly ministry many years ago, and the allegation made by [REDACTED], following the Initial Review conducted by the Review Board on April 3, 2008.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Having received the recommendation of the Archdiocesan Review Board that information at least seems to be true that James Hoder engaged in sexual misconduct with [REDACTED], a minor at the time of the alleged incident, I have concluded that this constitutes information which "at least seems to be true" (c. 1717) and warrants further investigation.

Therefore, in accordance with the aforementioned canon, I decree that an inquiry be done into the facts and circumstances of this accusation, as well as its imputability to James Hoder.

Since my other duties prevent me from conducting this investigation personally, I hereby appoint Ms. Leah McCluskey to act as the investigator in this matter. In carrying out these duties, Ms. McCluskey will have all of the authority of an auditor, in accordance with cc. 1428 and 1717. She is to collect any additional proofs she deems necessary in accordance with the norm of law as they relate to the present allegation. She is delegated to take testimony from the accused and from any witnesses (cc. 1530 – 1538 and 1547 – 1573), to obtain any necessary documents (cc. 1540 – 1546), to enlist the services of any experts deemed necessary (cc. 1574 – 1581), and to have access to places or things which she deems necessary for her investigation.

In conducting her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to take care that such an investigation does nothing to harm James Hoder's name or to violate his right to protect his privacy.

After she has concluded her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to make a written and oral report to the Review Board, no later than one hundred eighty days from the date of this appointment. This report is to address the facts, circumstances, and imputability concerning the alleged offense. This report is to be sent to me, along with the advice of the Review Board.

Given on April 24, 2008, at Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of June 4, 2008 in response to your letter of June 3, 2008, regarding the matter of Reverend James Hoder, a priest ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from priestly ministry a number of years ago, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by [REDACTED]. This matter was discussed in a Review for Cause by the independent Review Board at their meeting of May 31, 2008.

In accepting the Review Board's determination that there is reason to suspect Sean Stevens was sexually abused by James Hoder, I have decided that the matter requires a further penal process. Since this is a matter which must be referred to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, I will refer the matter to that Congregation and ask for their guidance.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Your Eminence,

On September 19, 2009 the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith received the documentation regarding the Reverend James A. HODER, a priest of your Archdiocese, who has been accused of the sexual abuse of minors and now seeking to be dispensed from the obligations of the priesthood.

This Congregation, after having carefully examined the documents of the present case and in light of the votum expressed by Your Eminence, decided to forward the petition to the Holy Father for his decision.

On November 13, 2009 the Supreme Pontiff granted Rev. James A. Hoder the grace of a dispensation from all the obligations arising from Holy Orders pro bono Ecclesiae. Attached you will find a copy of the relevant Decree.

Your Eminence is asked kindly to ensure that the priest is duly notified thereof, according to paragraph 2 of the Decree. In addition, a signed and notarised copy of the rescript should be returned to this Dicastery at your earliest convenience.

With kind regards and prayerful best wishes, I remain

Mr. James A. Hoder

Re: James A. Hoder, prot. n. 290/2009

Dear Mr. Hoder,

We have received from the Congregation For the Doctrine of the Faith the documentation of your return to the lay state, that is, your dismissal from the clerical state. The decree of laicization is effective from the moment of your reception of this letter.

Enclosed please find a photocopy of the original document in Latin and an unofficial translation. The decree provides you the opportunity to attest by your signature that you have received it. I ask you to call me to schedule an appointment to read the decree and sign it. This appointment, which should take no more than thirty minutes, can be scheduled at an ecclesiastical location that is convenient for you. The appointment can be scheduled at a time that is opportune for you. If you fail to schedule an appointment, we will document that fact and the completed paperwork will be forwarded to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, as well as filed in our Chancery. Your failure to sign the decree does not change the effects of it; you are dismissed from the clerical state and dispensed from all the obligations of the clerical state, including celibacy.

Just as notification of your promise of celibacy, your ordination to the diaconate and your ordination to the priesthood was sent to the church of your baptism for recording in the entry that records your baptism, so also will a notification of your return to the lay state be sent there for recording. Furthermore, the current pastor is instructed that whenever a certificate attesting to your baptism is issued, there is not to be any mention of your ordinations and the promise of celibacy. He is instructed to refer any inquiries about your return to the lay state to the Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

I would draw your attention to the precepts outlined in paragraph 5 that note, among other things, that the dismissed priest automatically loses all the rights proper to the clerical state and is not longer bound by the obligations connected with the clerical state. The precepts also state clearly that you are excluded from the exercise of the sacred ministry, and that you cannot hold any position in the administration of a parish or that has pastoral responsibility. Also, you are not allowed to teach religion or theology, other than with the permission of the Chancery and in a very limited manner.

If I do not hear from you by three weeks from the date of this letter, that is January 8, 2010, I will presume that you have decided not to schedule an appointment and not to sign the attestation that you have received the decree. It would be helpful if you decide not to sign the attestation, that you send me a short note to that effect.

Please call me at my office, which is (312) 534-8206.

Sincerely yours,
