

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces an email from Victim EJ to Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, on March 28, 2004, regarding his allegation of abuse against Rev. Russell Romano. The alleged abuse consisted of Fr. Romano making inappropriate gestures and advances toward Victim EJ when Victim EJ was a student at Quigley Preparatory Seminary South. Victim EJ had a confrontation with Fr. Romano and shortly thereafter Fr. Romano was removed from Quigley Preparatory Seminary South. Another priest told Victim EJ that Fr. Romano was gone and should never have been allowed to work with children.

RE: Russ Romano

1. I received a phone call today from Bishop Francis Roque of the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA. He called in response to my letter of recommendation for Russ Romano.

2. Bishop Roque stated that the Military Archdiocese is reluctant to endorse Russ for the VA, especially at Hines. He said there are too many pressures in that type of ministry. [REDACTED]

As an aside, Bishop Roque stated that Hines itself has a particular problem in that there is difficulty with the Head Chaplain, Chaplain Lanier. Both of the Catholic priests that are stationed there at this time are anxious to get out and to be reassigned.

3. Bishop Roque stated that VA hospitals are not like the normal Catholic hospitals. The priests there are like gypsies. They are pretty much left on their own and once they are in the VA system, there is very little control that anyone else exerts over them.

4. Bishop Roque does not want to hurt Russ, but he really does not think that this would be a good ministry for him. He did not just want to put this in a letter, as it might appear to be too cold-hearted a response. However, I did ask him if he would send me a letter to this effect so that I could communicate this to Russ. [REDACTED]

Joe Bender's advice: writing is fine, but phone calls aren't. Content of letter was some old stuff. You are important to me, etc.

2. Joe Bender got a letter from Russ. Statement "I'm very concerned about [redacted] I hope he is doing well... My friend [redacted] is nephew saw [redacted] at a party. [redacted] I hope that had nothing to do with what happened."

3. Joe Bender talked to [redacted]. He was bothered that he seemed to be followed or watched. A stranger said "Russ said to say hello."

RE: Rev. Russell Romano '73

3-24-86: Rector of Quigley Seminary South reported concern from J. Binder, school counselor, about inappropriate behavior by R. with students [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. A report was made to Ms. Lightfoot of the Department of Children and Family Services of Illinois.

3-25-86: Meeting of the Rector, Fr. Romano, and the Vicar for Priests to discuss the allegations, and R's response. The following actions were taken:

- R. Terminated his work at Quigley South.

- R. was placed under a canonical mandate to cease further contacts with persons under age 18.
- The Quigley faculty contacted the parents of the boys involved. They also conducted a discrete investigation of approximately 30 present and past Quigley South students to determine whether any other boys had been affected. No other cases surfaced.

AOC 004514

D. I also spokewith Jack Daley and John Collins and they corroborated what the others had said and the necessity to talk with Russ.

E. Finally, Sunday evening, April 28, I spoke with Jerry Kicanas and he suggested a 2 part approach to Russ: first, express concern for Russ and his personal problems, and second, to make it very clear that the drinking, movies, hugs, and kisses with our students must stop immediately. Basically, that is what I said to Russell.

2. The Meeting

As I mentioned, we met for 2 periods on April 29. For the first part of the meeting, I expressed my concerns for Russ as his pastor. I felt he had withdrawn from Quigley (he agreed), that he was leaving right after classes (he said he was tired), that he did not get along with practically any of the faculty (he had trouble agreeing with that) and that he might have a drinking problem. When I confronted him with the possibility that he may have a drinking problem, his response was that he had drunk to excess at times (Dom Grassi mentioned that the police had to bring him home once after he had had an accident while driving under the influence). (others say that he has admitted that he cannot stop at one drink). When asked directly, he honestly stated "I don't know."

A very common thread throughout the conversation was that Russ feels that everyone takes advantage of him — both students and faculty. But he ties this into his image of Jesus. He feels that perhaps years from now, by his patient suffering, people will realize how much he did for them. Dom mentions that every parish he has been in, he leaves bitter because they have used him up and then discarded him. This attitude should be looked at if Russ is to change and become happier, more fulfilled, and more successful in his priesthood. Another factor that is interwoven that complicates Russ' relations with the students is his concept of mentoring, which is not a bad idea in itself, but when it becomes too close and smothering a relationship, it can cause real harm to both Russ and the student. Russ needs to look at "mentoring" on a whole.

The second part of our conversation had to deal with the alcohol, movies, hugs and kisses. Russ immediately and without hesitation admitted that these showed poor judgment and that they would stop immediately — that sincerely I should never worry about him doing any of this again. I thanked him for his quick recognition and correction of this, and he really seemed sincere — as if it had been something he had been thinking about and realizing was not too wise. I emphasized that these must cease immediately — otherwise further action would have to be taken, and he understood.

3. After the meeting

Throughout the meeting, Russ' attitude was very good. He was open and receptive to what I was saying. At times I asked him what he was feeling — at times, he said he was just sad, at other times he was hurt that others had not come forward and shred these things with him directly. He was also concerned about [REDACTED]. He mentioned that he never felt that he forced liquor on the students, but if they asked, he would give it to them - but he felt that only 4 students had drunk with him.

At the close of the meeting, Russ seemed sincere about trying to put the pieces together, and in the day and a half since the meeting he has talked with Ed and Joe Binder. Russ needs to be supported and loved as he tries to work on things; he appears to really be trying hard

4. Random Thoughts

A. Russ shared with me that there have been some serious family problems that have put him under stress.

B. Russ was worried how all this affected how people looked at him — how wide spread were some of these things. He also wondered how these things affected his future jobs here at Quigley.

C. Russ feels frustrated at Quigley at present since there are no new challenges. He prefers taking on projects for a year or two, and then moving on to something else.

D. In talking with Jerry Kicanas today, he suggested that perhaps Russ have an Alcoholism evaluation at a hospital so that if there is an illness it can be treated in time.

E. In talking with Joe Binder afterwards, he felt that some counselling/spiritual direction was in order because some of these things are so intertwined with Russ' faith and vision of ministry.

F. After our meeting, we arranged to meet again in a week, on May 6, to see how things are going.

I do ask you to work out the necessary arrangements for auto and health insurances with Bishop Goedert or Father Patrick O'Malley, who has succeeded Ray Goedert as Vicar for Priests.

Dear Russ,

I received word from Ken Velo this morning that the Cardinal has granted your request for a leave of absence. Although he was not able to see you before his departure for Rome, he did ask that I convey this message to you. Therefore, Russ, your leave of absence for six months becomes effective immediately and will expire July 31, 1991.

I presume you and Mike Hogan will work out the arrangements for your departure from St. Barbara's. A leave of absence, Russ, involves several other practical matters, as well as some policies that the Archdiocese requests you observe:

1. Your salary for the month of February and thereafter will come from the Pastoral Center and will be mailed directly to you. Please be sure to let me know where you will be residing.
2. Your automobile insurance and hospitalization coverage will remain in effect throughout the period of your leave.
3. Should you become employed during this period, your salary, of course, will be discontinued. The same will be true of insurance, as soon as you have your own coverage.
4. Although you remain a priest of the archdiocese, it is advised that you not wear clerical garb while on this leave of absence, and you may not exercise any public ministry whatever without the explicit permission of the Cardinal. Of course, the Sacrament of Penance may be administered to one in danger of death.
5. In the event you would wish to seek employment with any Church-related organization or agency, you must first obtain the Cardinal's approval.

If you have any questions about these matters or anything else, don't hesitate to call.

Prior to his departure, the Cardinal set up an appointment for you on Monday, February 11, at the Pastoral Center at 12:30 P.M. If, for any reason, you are unable to keep this appointment, please call me or Ken Velo to set up another date.

Once again, Russ, many thanks for your dedicated service throughout these years of your active ministry. Please keep in touch from time to time to let me know how you are doing. I would especially be pleased to hear from you mid-way in your leave and again towards the end.

With prayers, Russ, that Our Lord will bless you generously during these important months of discernment, I remain

Faternally yours,

Rev. Raymond Goedert

RE: Rev. Russell Lawrence Romano

Dear [REDACTED]

We have received your request for information regarding Russell Lawrence Romano. The records of the Archdiocese of Chicago reflect that Russell Lawrence Romano was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese on May 9, 1973.

In March 1986 the Archbishop determined there was reason to suspect Russell Lawrence Romano had engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor and he was placed under restrictions. Public authorities were notified of the matter.

Russell Lawrence Romano undertook a leave of absence on January 22, 1991 and he resigned from priestly ministry on October 18, 1991.

Please understand, a determination that there is reasonable cause to suspect that a priest has engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor does not mean that the allegation has been proved. It means the allegation has been determined to have sufficient reliability to warrant further action by the Archdiocese.

If you have additional information regarding this individual you wish to bring to our attention, please contact Ms. Leah McCluskey of the Office of Professional Responsibility at (312) 751-5205.

Sincerely,

Meeting

Rev. Kenneth Budzikowski made arrangements for the November 18, 2011 meeting to take place at the Vicar for Priests Office.

After introductions took place, I presented Mr. Russell Romano with an envelope and informed him that it contained a copy of archdiocesan policies (§1100 Clerical Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry), information on the professional investigation firm that may be used during the investigation of this matter, and CAIR’s statement on confidentiality. I also provided Mr. Romano with a copy of the report of [REDACTED] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against him (see file for allegation report with cover memo dated November 17, 2011).

In order to present [REDACTED] allegation to Mr. Romano, I gave Mr. Romano the choice to read the report himself or for me to read the report out loud. Mr. Romano looked to his wife for advice and she indicated to him that it was his choice. Mrs. Romano appeared tearful. Fr. Budzikowski and I also offered to leave the conference room if Mr. and Mrs. Romano wished. Mr. Romano eventually expressed his preference that Fr. Budzikowski and I leave the conference room so that he and his wife could read through the allegation.

Romano, [REDACTED]

Fr. Budzikowski and I left the conference room for approximately 20 minutes, until Mr. Romano invited us to return.

Mr. Romano asked questions that led to my providing a verbal explanation of the process. I informed Mr. and Mrs. Romano that due to the recent change in archdiocesan policy, this matter would not go before the Independent Review Board because Mr. Romano is no longer a cleric. I noted that as a result, my role would be complete once I presented [REDACTED] allegation to Mr. Romano and provided Mr. Romano with an opportunity to respond.

Mr. Romano expressed his appreciation for the information as well as for the copy of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] allegation against him. When asked, Mr. Romano did not indicate that he had any response that he wished to make to the allegation. I invited Mr. Romano to provide a written response to the allegation at a later date if he wished. Mr. Romano expressed his understanding of this, but did not state if he would provide a response or not.

Fr. Budzikowski and I again thanked Mr. and Mrs. Romano for their time. It was agreed that Mr. Romano could contact Fr. Buzikowski or me with any questions or concerns.

INVESTIGATIONS AND REVIEW

I have for the longest time fought labeling myself victim of priest sexual abuse, and even now the term seems to broad when you consider the range of the abuse and horror some of the victims have been through.

When I was a freshman at Quigley Preparatory Seminary South in Chicago, I visited Fr. Russell Romano at the St. Barbara rectory with another seminarian [REDACTED]. While sitting on a couch in his room, Romano placed his hand on my thigh and then moved it to cup and squeezed my genitals. I pushed away and left the rectory without saying anything to anyone.

Fr. Romano tormented me throughout my years at Quigley. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I can't begin to imagine what affect his behavior had on others. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I learned that Fr. Romano's name wasn't on the original list of abusers, much to my dismay. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

In the end the burden of keeping the secret for nine years became too hard. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I had not told anyone about Fr. Romano touching me at all until very recently, and even then I initially only admitted at first to him placing his hand on my leg. I have told [REDACTED] mom and dad. More recently, I have told he entire story to [REDACTED] immediate family.

I know it may not compare to what has happened to others, but I now understand this incident was the root of a battle with depression, that has progressed in severity and caused disruption throughout my life. I need help getting the care I need to get through this, I am hoping the Archioocese of Chicago will help.

Also, I have learned that Fr. Romano is working as a licensed counselor in Illinois and I want help doing something about that.

But this is my Church and I won't let these evil men win. I still want a place in the Church and the opportunity to make it better, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I pray telling my story will only help me to heal, and ultimately do no harm to the Church I love so much.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your e-mail.

[REDACTED], to please feel free to contact me. When we schedule a time to meet, you are also more than welcome to have anyone with you if you would like--some people I have met with have chosen [REDACTED] a friend, family member, or his/her attorney.

In terms of a meeting itself, we can meet wherever you choose. Our offices are downtown within walking distance of the Pastoral Center (Quigley), or I could make arrangements for us to meet in a location that is more convenient for you (we have made arrangements to meet with people in conference rooms in hotels). People have also made the request that we meet with them [REDACTED] or with their attorney in their attorney's office.

[REDACTED] I look forward to hearing back from you once you have had the opportunity to speak with your therapist. Thank you again.

Peace,

Leah,

I'll try to get back to you with a time. Jimmy mentioned that I might want an attorney. I strongly dismissed the idea at first I don't want injure the Church. But I guess I may need to think about it. And also update the situation [REDACTED]

While I understand that asking for help for me is important. My biggest concern is if Romano is still in practice as a therapist, I think I may need help with an attorney for that. I don't want him harming anyone else.

[REDACTED] I will be back in touch next Friday.

On April 26, 2011, I received a phone call from a man who identified himself as . Initially,  sounded angry and stated that he was calling me at the direction of . When  stated that the reason for his call was to report abuse, I could hear the tone in his voice change from angry to emotional. I asked  if he was calling to report his own abuse or the abuse of someone else. Audibly upset,  stated that he was calling to report that he was sexually abused when he was in grammar school. When asked,  stated that the abuse by a priest took place at St. Leonard in Berwyn. At first when I asked  if he could identify the priest,  I then provided  with information about this office, the related process of receiving allegations of abuse, as well as the Office of Assistance Ministry.

I talked to  about my wish to determine if the accused is an active priest and the related concern of the safety of children if the accused is in ministry. As I began to talk about attempting to determine if the accused is alive or deceased,  identified the accused as Russell Romano. He  remarked that he is 50 years old now.  is aware that Mr. Romano is no longer a priest and told me that he thinks that Mr. Romano is married. Last  knew, Mr. Romano was living in Bolingbrook.

Meeting

Rev. Kenneth Budzikowski made arrangements for the August 30, 2010 meeting to take place at the Vicar for Priests Office.

After introductions took place, I presented Mr. Russell Romano with an envelope and informed him that it contained a copy of archdiocesan policies (§1100 Clerical Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry), information on the professional investigation firm that may be used by CAIR during the continued investigation of this matter, and CAIR's statement on confidentiality. I also provided Mr. Romano with a copy of the report of [REDACTED] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against him.

In order to present the report of [REDACTED] allegation to him, I gave Mr. Romano the choice to read the entire transcript (of my meeting with [REDACTED] where he formalized his allegation against Mr. Romano) to himself, for me to read the entire transcript out loud, or for me to summarize the points of the transcript that reflect [REDACTED] allegations of sexual abuse against Mr. Romano.

After conferring with his wife, Mr. Romano asked that I summarize points of the transcript that reflect [REDACTED] allegations of sexual abuse against him.

After reading the aforementioned summary of the transcript, Mr. Romano explained that the attorney that he has used previously "is now in private practice." As per Mr. Romano, he was to call his former attorney after our meeting in order to obtain a referral to another attorney who would assist him with this matter.

Mr. Romano then asked me what happens next. I informed Mr. Romano that I would type a draft report of our meeting and send it to him for his review, additions, and/or corrections. Mr. Romano agreed that I could mail communications to his home address. I then informed Mr. and Mrs. Romano that this matter would go before the Review Board and provided a verbal description of the Review Board process.

Mrs. Romano asked me if the related investigation of this matter was confidential. I referred Mr. and Mrs. Romano to the statement of confidentiality in the packet of information that I had given to Mr. Romano. I added that the only information concerning these matters released by the Archdiocese of Chicago to the public is the list of clerics on the archdiocesan website who have been found to have sexually abused at least one minor.

Fr. Budzikowski and I again thanked Mr. and Mrs. Romano for their time. It was agreed that Mr. Romano could contact Fr. Buzikowski or me with any questions or concerns.

Re: Romano, Russell (Laicized priest)

Date: October 5, 2010

As a part of the investigation of the matter of  allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against Russell Romano, the independent Review Board requested that the pastor(s) assigned to St. Barbara in Brookfield during the time period of alleged abuse be identified and spoken to about Mr. Romano.

According to Mr. Romano's vitae, he resided at St. Barbara while teaching at Quigley South from August 20, 1979 through August 25, 1980. The next entry on Mr. Romano's vitae was that he took a leave of absence from ministry in April 1986.

Information received from Archives identified Rev. Msgr. John B. Hayes as the pastor of St. Barbara from September 26, 1972 through September of 1979. According to Msgr. Hayes' vitae (see attached), he passed away on September 7, 1983. Archives also provided the information that Rev. Donald Joseph Hughes was the pastor of St. Barbara from October 1, 1979 through his death on October 30, 1990 (see attached vitae).

Hi Jen,

Russell Romano seems to have left active ministry in 1991 and was laicized in 2009. He is still alive so his file is at the Chancellor's Office. We have scanned all the vita cards and vita questionnaires so his are attached to this email. Anything else you need can come from the Chancellor's Office. If Maryann would prefer to not send the original file or copy it herself, we can scan it and make it available to you.

Also, let me know if you have any trouble with the attachments. We need to get you trained on Trim. As soon as the IT training room is available again...

Peggy

Ruth,

After looking in radar it appears this priest has 11 other allegations against him. It also appears to be Leah's case. Since she'll be back on Tuesday I'll have her give him a call. If you speak with him again you could give him that information. I thought it might be best if I don't involve myself since he'll be working with Leah. Thanks again!

Dear Tom,

After speaking with you the other day regarding Russ Romano's return, I shared what we had talked about with Joe Binder and Dom Grassi. In talking about different scenarios and situations, we felt that from our perspective some points need to be clarified for us and possibly for Russ.

Our concerns were further heightened yesterday when Dom Grassi asked Ed Mikolajczyk if he had heard from Russ lately, and Ed said that he had found out from [redacted] a freshman at Niles, that Russ was in town over the holidays. Russ had had dinner at the [redacted] home and [redacted] told Ed that he was uncomfortable around Russ, which is understandable. [redacted] also mentioned to Ed that Russ was under some sort of contract that prohibited him from seeing his parents.

Having things pretty calmed down and back to normal here at Quigley, Joe, Dom, and I are concerned for Quigley, for our current and former students, and for Russ in regards to his return to the area.

Some Questions that we have:

- What is the story that Russ is telling people?
- Should he be discussing his contract at all? If so, with whom?
- Is there a clear policy on whom Russ can see? Where he can go? With whose permission? Should there be such a policy?
- Should we be informed of such a policy?
- Would it be best if we sat down with Russ and went over concerns?
- What should we report to the Vicar of Priests? We don't want to be snitches, but most young men involved, even though they've left Quigley, will come to us rather than others.
- What should Bob McLaughlin know?
- What should we know?
- How should we handle faculty and students wanting to get in touch with Russ? What should and shouldn't he tell them?

AOC 004564

At present we find ourselves kind of in the dark about Russ. I guess we would find it helpful to have a little more clarity in terms of guidelines and parameters for him. To put it honestly, we're somewhat scared and wary at this moment, and feel we must be very cautious for the good of our institution and our young men. We have serious questions as to whether Russ should be allowed to come to Qigley at all or be in contact with any of our students.

I'll be awaiting a response, Tom, as to how we should proceed. Thanks so much for all your help and support through this entire affair. Hopefully we're almost home free.

In His Priesthood,

Very Rev. John G. Klein
Rector

CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM FOR RECTORS ONLY

RE: Rev. Russell Romano
DATE: April 26, 1986

RECEIVED

JUL 08 2010

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
OFFICE FOR CHILD ABUSE
INVESTIGATIONS AND REVIEW

On March 19, 1986, Mr. Joseph Binder, a counselor at Quigley Seminary South, reported to me a possible case of abuse by Rev. Russell Romano with [REDACTED] one of our students. We reported this incident to the Department of Children and Family Services, to Rev. Thomas Ventura, Vicar for Priests for the Archdiocese of Chicago, and Mr. James Serritella, legal counsel for the Archdiocese. Mr. Binder and I visited [REDACTED] mother to explain what had happened and to offer counseling for her and her son. Steps were taken to remove Fr. Romano from Quigley [REDACTED]

We also began some preliminary investigation to determine if there were other young men that were possible victims of Fr. Romano. Of the 5 young men we spoke with besides [REDACTED] we discovered 2 more who were victims, [REDACTED]. We again reported these new cases to the Department of Children and Family services, but since [REDACTED] were over 18 there were no written reports. We went to the homes of both of the young men and spoke with their parents, again offering counseling for them and their sons. In all 3 cases, there was touching in the genital area, but no penetration or force.

We expanded our investigation and spoke with 24 young men, at Quigley South and at Niles College, who had spent some time with Fr. Romano. We ascertained that there was no sexual misconduct with any of these young men nor could they name any other young men who they had any reason to believe had any incidents with Fr. Romano. We offered counseling to these young men and continue to keep in contact with them.

We finished speaking with these young men on April 18, 1986. Having spoken with 30 young men in all, we felt it was reasonable to conclude that there were no other individuals or incidents that needed further investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

Very Rev. John G. Klein

FROM: Fr. Ventura ¹¹
RE: Fr. Russel Romano '73

1. On 3-24-86 Fr. John Klein, rector of Quigley South, phoned me concerning Russ Romano, a faculty member. In March 1985, one year ago, student [redacted] expressed to a school counselor, his concerns about Fr. Romano's behavior to him, especially inappropriate hugs and kisses. K. confronted R. [redacted] K. arranged a plan of monthly supervisory meetings with R. to monitor the situation. Things seemed to improve.

2. However, now school counselor Joe Binder has informed K. that students [redacted] and [redacted] expressed concern about inappropriate behavior by R. specifically serving beer to minors, showing pornographic movies, hugs and kisses, and being in the same bed with [redacted] who stayed overnight in R's quarters at St. Barbara Rectory, Brookfield. [redacted] had slept at the rectory but experienced no difficulty. [redacted] indicated that R. had fondled and touched him. The young men added that R. would sometimes phone them, inviting them to come to the rectory at night. At such times he seems to have been drinking.

[redacted] The original call was to the DCFS Hotline (800-252-2873).

4. On 3-25-86 K. and I met with R. to discuss these allegations, his response, and the course of action to be pursued by Quigley South and the Archdiocese. The following actions were taken:

[redacted]

- On 3-25-86 R. was placed under a canonical directive instructing him to cease further contacts with persons under the age of 18. On 4-11-86 this was made more specific and signed by R. and by myself. The penalty for violation of this directive is ipso facto liability to suspension.

5. On 3-26-86 I informed Fr. Don Hughes, pastor of St. Barbara, Brookfield, about the situation. He said that he had been concerned about R. entertaining Quigley students in his quarters. He had confronted him about it, but was unable to take further action because he lacked any firm evidence of improper activities. [REDACTED]

6. Father Klein and Mr. Binder conducted an investigation at Quigley to determine if any other students had experienced problems with R. They contacted approximately 30 students at Quigley South and at Niles College. Some had been present when beer was served and when movies were shown. [REDACTED] a Niles sophomore, reported that R. had fondled him in 1984. [REDACTED] a Niles freshman, reported that he had rebuffed overtures from R. but on one occasion while sleeping on a couch in R's room he awoke in the middle of the night to find R. touching his crotch. Father Klein and Mr. Binder contacted the parents of [REDACTED] about these matters. The investigation revealed no other cases.

7. I contacted the pastors of the parishes at which R. had served prior to his assignment to Quigley: Msgr. John Farrell and Fr. Bill Martin of St. Leonard, Berwyn and Fr. Peter Hayes of Our Lady Mother of the Church, Chicago to learn whether there had been any previous concerns about R's activities.

- Farrell and Martin reported that during R's 5 years he was a hard worker, good preacher, somewhat controversial regarding liberal vs conservative parish issues. He seldom ate meals with the other priests in the rectory and became increasingly isolated. However he never had young people in his rooms and there were no complaints or concerns about any suspicious or inappropriate activities.

- Hayes reported that R. was there one year and had his heart set on teaching at Quigley. He was a strange person with whom to live because he never ate meals with the priests and stayed in his room. A couple of parents complained that R. would phone their teenage sons at night and invite them to a movie. H. told them to simply instruct their sons to say No, which they did. He began to host older teenage boys in his room and there were indications that he sometimes served beer. But there were no indications or complaints about inappropriate activity beyond the beer.

Hi Leah,

Fr. Russ Romano called today and said he would be available on Monday, August 30, at 2 PM, to have the new allegation read to him. He indicated that his wife would be present, also. He asked who would be present for the reading and what, if any, action he would be required to take at that time.

I hope the time and date indicated work for you as it has been difficult setting up a convenient time with Russell.

Rev. Vincent Costello, Vicar for Priests

Ms. Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Meeting

Upon my arrival to the Vicar for Priests Office for the 11:00 am scheduled meeting, there was a man and woman in the waiting area. Once I was in the office and spoke with Rev. Vincent Costello, he informed me that the two in the waiting area were Mr. Russell Romano and his wife . Fr. Costello invited Mr. and Mrs. Romano into the office and escorted them into the conference room where we were all to meet.

After introductions were made, Fr. Costello and I continued by thanking Mr. Romano and his wife for agreeing to meet with us. I verbally provided information on the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review as well as information about the role and functioning of the independent Review Board. I also provided Mr. Romano with an envelope which contained information on the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review as well as a copy of §1100 Clerical Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry.

I asked Mr. and Mrs. Romano if either of them had any questions for either Fr. Costello or myself. Mr. Romano indicated that he did not have any questions for us.

I then handed Mr. Romano a copy of the report of [redacted] allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against him. Mr. Romano had mentioned the possibility of civil attorney Patrick Reardon working on this matter with him. I told Mr. Romano that when and if he decided to work with Mr. Reardon, to please let me know and I would send copies of all information to him as well.

I proceeded by reading [redacted] allegation against Mr. Romano in its entirety. When asked, Mr. Romano stated that he did not wish to make any response to [redacted] allegation at this time.

I told Mr. Romano that I would type up a draft report of the January 4th meeting and then offered to send it to him directly or in care of his attorney. Mr. Romano stated that he has not yet retained Mr. Reardon as his attorney. He added that when he contacts Mr. Reardon and if he does have the time to work with him, he [Mr. Romano] would notify Fr. Costello or me. At that time, I would then send a draft report of the January 4th meeting to Mr. Romano in care of Mr. Reardon.

When asked by Fr. Costello and myself, Mr. and Mrs. Romano accepted our offer to leave the conference room in order to give them some time alone. Approximately 10 minutes later, Mr. and Mrs. Romano emerged from the conference room and prepared to leave. At this time, Mr. Romano stated that he would continue to be in contact with Fr. Costello and me in regards to this matter through his civil attorney.

Dear [REDACTED]

Please be advised that the independent Review Board met on May 31, 2008 and conducted a Review for Cause of your allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Rev. Russell Romano pursuant to Article §1104.10 of the Review Process for Continuation of Ministry. Mr. Romano is a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

At a Review for Cause the Review Board determines, based on the information that has been gathered and made available to it, whether there is reasonable cause to suspect that the accused priest engaged in the sexual misconduct of a minor.

In the Review for Cause of this matter on May 31st, the Board determined that there is reason to suspect that you were sexually abused by the former Fr. Romano. Cardinal George has accepted the Board's determination.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at any time. I may be reached at [312] 867-8793. Also, please know that the staff of the Office of Assistance Ministry continues to be available to you and may be reached at [312] 751-8267.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of June 4, 2008 in response to your letter of June 3, 2008, regarding the matter of Reverend Russell Romano, a priest ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from priestly ministry a number of years ago, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by [REDACTED]. This matter was discussed in a Review for Cause by the independent Review Board at their meeting of May 31, 2008.

I accept the Review Board's determination that there is reason to suspect that the alleged abuse occurred and believe that a further penal process is warranted. Since this is a matter that must be referred to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, I will forward the case to that Congregation and ask for their guidance.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Ms. McCluskey:

Hillard Heintze has completed the investigation requested in the March 12, 2008 case referral in the matter of retired priest Russell Romano. Attached you will find our investigative report which has been prepared by Hillard Heintze as a confidential work product for the sole use of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Professional Review Board. With this transmittal, one (1) original hardbound copy and one (1) electronic version are being submitted to you as Director, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review.

In the case referral, Hillard Heintze was requested to determine whether Romano worked with altar boys while assigned to St. Leonard and whether Romano was known to have pulled [REDACTED] out of class. Hillard Heintze interviewed eleven individuals in this investigation.

The investigation noted several points, which have been documented as Key Findings. The investigation confirmed that Romano was in charge of the altar boys at St. Leonard, but found not information or evidence to corroborate the allegation that [REDACTED] was pulled from class by Romano. In fact, [REDACTED] 8th grade teacher, Mary Bauer, directly refutes this allegation.

Should you need any additional information on our investigation, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED].

Sincerely,
HILLARD HEINTZE, LLC

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On March 12, 2008, Hillard Heintze received a request from the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review for investigative assistance in the matter of Russell Romano, a retired priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. We were requested to conduct interviews of persons who may have information relevant to the allegations presented by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Specifically, we were requested to determine whether Romano worked with altar boys while assigned to St. Leonard and whether Romano was known to have pulled [REDACTED] from class.

Five priests who had knowledge of Russell Romano were interviewed: Fr. Gary Miller, Fr. Daniel Collins, Fr. William Curran, Fr. Thomas Schwab, and Fr. Thomas Winikates. Two former lay teachers at St. Leonard – Mary Bauer and [REDACTED] – were also interviewed. Several of these people interviewed spoke very highly of Romano. No evidence was found to substantiate the allegation that Romano acted inappropriately with children.

Romano appeared to have a lot of contact with children, but our investigation found no evidence or information indicating that Romano ever mistreated or abused children. It was indicated that Romano had on occasion stayed out late at night, but it was not known what his activity was during this time. Fr. Collins, Fr. Curran and Fr. Miller all said Romano was in charge of the altar boys.

The investigation confirmed that Romano was in charge of the altar boys at St. Leonard, but found no corroborating information or evidence to support the allegation that [REDACTED] was removed from class by Romano. In fact, [REDACTED] 8th grade teacher, Mary Bauer, directly refuted this allegation.

Hillard Heintze has identified four Key Findings during this investigation.

#1: Memorandum of Interview: Fr. Gary Miller

Date: March 14, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 - [REDACTED]/Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted Fr. Gary Miller telephonically on March 14, 2008 to arrange an interview regarding a confidential investigation of sexual abuse of minors involving a priest. Investigator Everett interviewed Fr. Miller on March 17, 2008 at the St. Bernadette's Rectory, 9343 South Francisco Avenue, Evergreen Park, IL 60805. Fr. Miller is currently the Pastor at St. Bernadette's Parish.

Fr. Miller stated he had first met Russell Romano in the early 1960s when they both attended Quigley High School in Chicago. Fr. Miller stated Romano was in the class one year behind him. Fr. Miller and Romano were only acquaintances and did not know each other very well at that time. Fr. Miller attended Quigley High School from 1960-1964. Fr. Miller attended Niles College Seminary in 1965. Romano attended shortly after. Again Fr. Miller and Romano were only acquaintances and not very good friends. Fr. Miller then attended St. Mary of the Lake Seminary from 1966-1972, and Romano attended from 1967-1973. It was during this time, that Fr. Miller and Romano became good friends. They both worked on several theater plays together.

In 1972, Fr. Miller was ordained and assigned to St. Leonard parish in Berwyn. According to Fr. Miller, Romano arrived at St. Leonard in June of 1974 after spending a very short time at either St. Anne's in Lansing, IL, or St. Agnes in Chicago Heights. During their time together at St. Leonard, Fr. Miller and Romano had many disagreements and did not generally get along. Fr. Miller felt he and Romano had different approaches to the ministry. Fr. Miller indicated he and Romano drank very heavily and very often together and then would have disagreements about the ministry. [REDACTED]

Fr. Miller went on to say he felt Romano was a very good homilist, but was two-faced to everyone he dealt with. When asked to explain, Fr. Miller stated that he always preached about having an open door policy, but never made himself available. Fr. Miller considered Romano to be very intense. Fr. Miller was assigned to St. Leonard from 1972 till 1978. Romano was assigned there from 1974 to 1979 or 1980. Fr. Miller stated other than St. Leonard, he and Romano never worked together at any other parishes. Fr. Miller did not recall what other parishes Romano might have been assigned to after he left St. Leonard.

When asked in what type of past time activities Romano participated, Fr. Miller said he did not recall. When asked what responsibilities Romano had at St. Leonard, Fr. Miller stated Romano was in charge of the CCD program and was responsible for the stipend account at the parish. Russell was also the Chaplain for an organization called Catholic Family Movement.

The investigator asked Fr. Miller if Romano had any involvement with the altar boys or the teen club. Fr. Miller stated he had forgotten about that and remembered Russell was in charge of the altar boys and the teen club. When asked, Fr. Miller stated he had never heard any complaints about Russell from any altar boys or any members of the teen club or any minors in general. Fr. Miller indicated he does not recall Romano spending excessive time with minor children. The investigator asked Fr. Miller if he recalled what type of vehicle Romano drove while he was assigned at St. Leonard. Fr. Miller did not recall. Fr. Miller was then asked if he knew of any times Romano frequented the drive-in movie theater at 31st and Cicero Avenue. Fr. Miller indicated he did not.

The investigator asked Fr. Miller to discuss or identify any other priest that had contact with Romano during his stay at St. Leonard parish. When asked about Monsignor Farrell, Fr. Peschon, Fr. Sheridan and Fr. Pommier, Fr. Miller indicated that they had all passed away. Fr. Curran was assigned to St. Leonard parish during some of the time that Romano was there. According to Fr. Miller, Fr. Curran is currently assigned with him at St. Bernadette's. Fr. Curran is currently on a sabbatical, and will not return for another two to three weeks. Fr. Becker who may have been assigned to St. Leonard during this time is currently assigned to a parish in Wauconda, IL.

Fr. Nicholas Desmond, who worked with Romano at the Maryville Summer Camp in Eagle River, Wisconsin, is currently assigned to St. Aloysius Parish located at 2300 West LeMoyné Avenue in Chicago. Fr. Dan Collins succeeded Fr. Miller at St. Leonard and is currently assigned to St. Mary of the Lake Parish, 4200 North Sheridan Road, Chicago, IL. The investigator questioned Fr. Miller regarding any teachers that might have taught at St. Leonard during the above time. It was stated Mr. [REDACTED] was a sixth grade teacher and might still be [REDACTED] at the St. Leonard Church. Fr. Miller recalled a teacher by the name of [REDACTED]. He believes she is currently living in [REDACTED]. Fr. Miller recalled the principal at St. Leonard was Sister Joan Gardner from the Sisters of St. Joseph. The investigator then questioned Fr. Miller of his recollection of the two women – [REDACTED] – who had been cleaning women at the St. Leonard rectory during his time there. Fr. Miller did not recall those two women, but does remember the cook [REDACTED] had passed away some time ago.

The investigator then questioned Fr. Miller regarding the Maryville Camp in Eagle River, Wisconsin. Fr. Miller stated that it was a summer camp to be used by the children of Maryville Academy. Prior to ordination, Romano was in charge of the seminarians at the summer camp in Eagle River. Fr. Miller could not recall the names of any seminarians who worked under Romano. When asked, Fr. Miller indicated he never knew of Romano bringing or arranging for children from St. Leonard to be brought to the camp. Fr. Miller did not recall ever hearing any talk or witnessing Romano acting inappropriately with any children at either St. Leonard or the summer camp in Eagle River, Wisconsin.

Fr. Miller stated he did not know when Romano left the priesthood. He has not spoken with Romano since sometime around 1980. Fr. Miller had no knowledge of any information involving Romano after that time. The investigator then asked Fr. Miller if he had any additional information that he might want to share. Fr. Miller stated he did not.

#2: Memorandum of Interview: Fr. Daniel Collins

Date: March 18, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 – [REDACTED] Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted Fr. Daniel Collins via telephone on March 18, 2008 to arrange an interview regarding a confidential investigation of sexual abuse of minors involving a priest. Fr. Collins and the investigator met on March 24, 2008 at St. Mary of the Lake Rectory, 4200 North Sheridan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60813. Ph# [REDACTED]

Fr. Collins is currently retired and living at St. Mary of the Lake Parish. Fr. Collins stated he was ordained in 1958 and was much older than Russell Romano. Fr. Collins first met Romano in July 1978 when he was first assigned to St. Leonard Parish. Both Fr. Collins and Romano were Assistant Pastors at St. Leonard. He felt that Romano kept to himself, and seldom had dinner with the other priests. Romano had very little to do with the other priests. Romano would often go out for the evening and stay out very late. Fr. Collins felt like he had nothing in common with Romano. Fr. Collins stated his contact with Romano was limited except for Liturgy projects that they were required to work on together. Fr. Collins stated he remained at St. Leonard until 1982 and indicated Romano left St. Leonard approximately one year after arriving which might have been 1979 or 1980. When asked, Fr. Collins stated that he knew nothing of Romano's assignments either before or after St. Leonard. Fr. Collins did recall Romano performing television prayer services that were aired in the 1970s. Fr. Collins last saw Romano approximately three or four years ago when they attended the funeral of a mutual friend.

Fr. Collins stated that Romano ran the parish teen club. Romano also trained the altar boys at St. Leonard. When asked, Fr. Collins indicated he never felt that Romano spent an extraordinary amount of time around minor children but did have some involvement with teens since Romano was rather young himself. The investigator asked Fr. Collins if he recalled what type of vehicle Romano drove while he was assigned to St. Leonard's. Fr. Collins could not recall the type of vehicle. When asked, Fr. Collins indicated that he never heard of Romano frequenting the drive-in movie theater located at 31st and Cicero Avenue. Fr. Collins stated while he was at St. Leonard, he never heard any talk of Romano or any other priest acting inappropriately with minor children. It was not until much later that Fr. Collins heard rumors of allegations being made about Fr. Ruge and Romano.

Fr. Collins does not recall the date when he heard these rumors. Fr. Collins does not recall Romano ever bringing minor children to the rectory other than children as a group spending time in the rectory relating to their Confirmation projects. Fr. Collins had no knowledge of Romano ever taking any minor children from the parish up to Eagle River, Wisconsin to the Maryville Summer Camp.

The investigator asked Fr. Collins if he could name any other priests who were assigned to St. Leonard during any part of Romano's time at St. Leonard. Fr. Collins mentioned Fr. Miller whom the investigator had already interviewed. He then mentioned Monsignor Farrell who is deceased, along with Fr. Schwab whom he believed may be assigned to Our Lady of Hope Parish in Chicago. Fr. Collins could not recall any teachers or other priests that were present at St. Leonard during this time. The investigator questioned Fr. Collins about [REDACTED] who had worked at the St. Leonard rectory as cleaning women. Fr. Collins did recall [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] but did not know where she was currently living.

#3: Memorandum of Interview: Charles P. Becker

Date: March 19, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 - [REDACTED] Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

On March 19, 2008, Investigator Everett contacted Fr. Becker, who was named in the investigative file, to arrange an interview. Investigator Everett identified himself and explained to Fr. Becker he would like to interview him regarding a confidential investigation of sexual abuse of minors involving a priest. Fr. Becker agreed to be interviewed by the investigator at the Noonan Academy, 19105 Henry Street, Mokena, IL.

Fr. Becker stated that he is currently residing at [REDACTED]. Fr. Becker is assigned to specialized ministry in that area and reports to the Noonan Academy one time a week. Fr. Becker was ordained a priest in 1986; Fr. Becker was assigned to St. Francis De Sales in Lake Zurich, IL from 1986-1990. He was then assigned to Mt. St. Joseph's in Lake Zurich as a home resident from 1991-1997. From 1998 until 2004 Fr. Becker was the Chaplain at Handmaids of Precious Blood in Lake Villa, Illinois.

When questioned about Romano, Fr. Becker stated he had never heard of him and had never met a Russell Romano in the priesthood. It is noted Fr. Charles Becker was ordained several years after Romano.

It appears that this Fr. Becker is a different person than the Fr. Becker indicated in the investigative report.

#4: Memorandum of Interview: Rev. William Curran

Date: April 14, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 - [REDACTED]/Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted Fr. William Curran telephonically on April 14, 2008 to arrange an interview regarding a confidential investigation of sexual abuse of minors involving a priest. Fr. Curran and the investigator met on April 19, 2008 at the St. Bernadette's Rectory, 9343 South Francisco Avenue, Evergreen Park, IL 60805. Fr. Curran is currently the Associate Pastor at St. Bernadette's Parish.

Fr. Curran stated he had first met Romano at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, IL. Fr. Curran stated that Romano was four years behind him. He stated that as a result of their age difference, he never really knew Romano all that well.

Fr. Curran stated he saw Russell probably once a month, although they never really interacted with one another. Fr. Curran was ordained a priest in 1969 and was assigned to St. Leonard Parish. He stayed at St. Leonard until June 1974 at which time Romano took his place. Fr. Curran was then assigned to All Saints Parish located at 108th and State Street in Chicago. Fr. Curran returned to St. Leonard as Pastor from 1992 till 2005. Fr. Curran stated that after he left St. Leonard the first time, he returned periodically to attend christenings, weddings and funerals. He saw Romano on some of those occasions. Fr. Curran stated that upon returning to St. Leonard to attend these functions, he never heard any talk by parishioners of any inappropriate behavior by Romano. As a matter of fact, Fr. Curran stated he had heard the parishioners thought very highly of the sermons that Romano gave.

Fr. Curran was not aware of any past time activities in which Romano was involved. Fr. Curran was not absolutely sure, but he thought that upon his arrival at St. Leonard, Romano was responsible for the teen club and in charge of the altar boys. These were assignments that Fr. Curran held while he was at St. Leonard.

Fr. Curran was very familiar with the Maryville summer camp in Eagle River, Wisconsin, but did not have any information regarding Romano visiting the camp with any minor children. Fr. Curran did not know what type of vehicle Romano drove while he was at St. Leonard nor did he have any information on Romano frequenting a drive-in movie theater located near St. Leonard.

Investigator Everett asked Fr. Curran if he recalled lay teachers by the name of [REDACTED], Mary Bauer or Sister [REDACTED]. Fr. Curran indicated that he did recall Mary Bauer, but did not recall [REDACTED] or Sister [REDACTED]. The investigator asked Fr. Curran if he had any additional information to offer. Fr. Curran stated he did not.

#5: Memorandum of Interview: Fr. Nicholas Desmond

Date: March 25, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 - [REDACTED] Romano

Upon reviewing reports regarding this investigation, Investigator Everett discovered that [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] of [REDACTED], had reported he had gone to Eagle River, Wisconsin to visit a summer camp with which Romano was involved. This camp was operated by Maryville Academy. [REDACTED] alleges he was in the seventh or eighth grade when Romano made arrangements for him to come to the camp. Fr. Desmond stated he did not know a Russell Romano, although he felt as though he had heard the name. When questioned further, Fr. Desmond stated he had never been to the Maryville Summer Camp in Eagle River, Wisconsin. Fr. Desmond stated he was ordained in 1984, and had never been assigned to St. Leonard parish and knew for certain he was never assigned to any parish or church with a Romano. Fr. Desmond stated he was sorry, but he simply had no information regarding a Russell Romano. Fr. Desmond looked in the Archdiocese directory for a possible listing of another priest named Desmond, but found none.

It should be noted that while reviewing the report, it was learned [REDACTED] birthday is [REDACTED] indicated he thought he was in the seventh or eighth grade at the time, which would have placed this incident in the time frame of 1977 or 1978.

#6: Memorandum of Interview: Fr. Gerald Joyce

Joyce named other priests that were assigned to St. Leonard during his tenure there. The priests mentioned were either deceased or had already been interviewed.

Fr. Joyce stated he never heard stories alleging that Romano acted inappropriately with minors. Fr. Joyce stated he had no other information to supply regarding Romano.

Re: Case File PFR 238 – [REDACTED] Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

When questioned about any other priest that might have been at St. Leonard during this time frame, Fr. Schwab offered the names of Fr. Jerry Joyce and Fr. Frank Kaucky – both of whom he believed to be retired in the Chicago area. Fr. Schwab apologized to the investigator that he could not be of more help.

#8: Memorandum of Interview: Fr. Thomas Winikates

Date: April 15, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 – [REDACTED] Romano

#9: Memorandum of Interview: Mary J. Bauer

Date: April 25, 2008
Re: Case File PFR 238 - [REDACTED] Romano
From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted Mary Bauer via telephone to arrange an interview regarding a confidential investigation of sexual abuse of minors involving a priest. Mary Bauer and the investigator met on April 25, 2008 at St. William School, 2559 North Sayre Avenue, Chicago, IL. Investigator Everett informed Bauer the priest in question was Russell Romano who had been assigned to St. Leonard Parish in the mid to late 1970s.

Mary Bauer is currently the Principal at St. William School. She has held that position from 1996 until the present. Bauer taught at St. Leonard in Berwyn, IL in 1979 and 1980. She returned to the school and taught there from 1982-1996 with the last eight years as the Assistant Principal. Bauer has been a parishioner at St. Leonard since 1971. Bauer stated she taught Religious Education classes at St. Leonard when Romano was the coordinator. Bauer had some contact with Romano at that time but claimed not to have known him very well. Bauer recalled Romano as very outgoing and remembered all the children at St. Leonard liking him very much. When questioned about Romano's reputation and conduct, Bauer indicated she could not comment on his conduct, but felt he always acted very professionally. Bauer was not able to comment on any habits Romano might have had while at St. Leonard. Bauer stated she had never heard any stories of Romano acting inappropriately with any children until after he left St. Leonard. She then heard stories of some involvement with minor children, but knew no details.

Bauer stated Romano was a priest who was very involved in school activities. He would periodically visit classes to say hello to the children. Bauer never saw this as a negative thing and always felt the children enjoyed these visits. The investigator then questioned Bauer as to whether or not she recalled Romano coming to any of her classes and removing any of the students from the classroom. She stated that she does not recall that ever occurring. Bauer stated that if there was ever a time when a student had to leave class to serve as an altar boy for a funeral mass, there was usually a pre-arranged schedule to indicate that. The investigator asked Bauer of some past time activities that Romano might have enjoyed. Bauer recalled Romano doing some type of religious television show. She also remembered Romano playing basketball on the school lot with many of the school age children. Bauer seemed to remember Romano having some involvement with the parish teen club, but did not recall any details. Bauer knew nothing of Romano's involvement with the altar boys. Investigator Everett asked Bauer if she recalled what type of vehicle Romano had driven. She replied that she did not. Bauer went on to say how her children were much younger, and did not attend St. Leonard school until after Romano was gone. Due to this, Bauer felt that she never got to know Romano very well.

Investigator Everett asked Bauer what information she might have on a fellow teacher named [REDACTED] or Sister [REDACTED]. Bauer stated that she did not recall a [REDACTED], but does remember hearing that Sister [REDACTED] had left the religious order, goes by the name of [REDACTED] and is believed to be living in the area of [REDACTED].
