Our deepest sympathy and prayers to the families of Benedetta Pitz, parishioner; Catherine Christopherson, mother of Ron (Denise) Christopherson and Diane (David) Griffin.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

The Second Sunday of Lent always gives us the Gospel passage of the Transfiguration of the Lord. This year we hear it from the Gospel of Mark. The first reading is the story of the covenant with Abraham and God's test of Abraham's obedience when asked to sacrifice his own beloved son, Isaac. When God sees that Abraham is willing to obey him, he stops the action and allows Abraham to spare his son. This passage from Genesis provides us with a great prefiguration of God the Father's willingness to sacrifice his own Son on the wood of the cross.

The Transfiguration provides us with another instance when a voice from Heaven is heard. This time the voice is heard to say: This is my beloved Son, Listen to him. This time the voice is not directed to Jesus but to his disciples. Peter has already professed his belief that Jesus is the Messiah. He is not the Messiah who will conquer the lands that oppressed the Israelites, and he is not the Messiah who will do away with Roman domination, but he is the Suffering Servant. Jesus, who called his disciples to follow him, is now renegotiating the summons. It is no longer Come, Follow me, but it has become: If you would be my follower, deny yourself, take up your cross, and come follow me. It seems that the program is changing! From this point on the Gospel becomes an instruction in servant discipleship, and it will conclude in Jerusalem. How have you participated in carrying your cross as a disciple of Jesus? Have you had a mountain top experience which has helped you during a more difficult time in life?

Accusation of Sexual Abuse of a minor: It is with deep personal sadness, that I am publishing a letter from the Archbishop to all of us, the people of Resurrection parish. There has been an accusation made against Fr. Leo Riley, Associate Pastor of Resurrection from 1985-86. Please read the letter (Bulletin, page 5). Part of any investigation is to notify the parishes where the accused has served. If you are aware of any information of abuse perpetrated by Father Leo Riley, please call Ms. Carol Gebhart, Director of the Office for the Protection of Children and Young People at the Archdiocese (556-2580). The Archdiocese remains committed to protect children from harm and to create a safe environment. An investigation does not constitute guilt, but attempts to determine the truth. Let us pray for victims, their families, and for those who are accused.

Directory! It is not too late to register to have your photo taken for the parish directory. Please call the parish office (556-7511) or register on line. Approximately 700 have now registered, still well below past participation levels.

May this Lent be a special time of grace and blessing!

Father Joe Hauer, pastor

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

The apostles thought they knew Jesus, but when he changed in front of them at the Transfiguration, they were "afraid." In families we cannot freeze relationships because change and growth are inevitable. Children grow up, parents grow old and spouses change. Transfigurations are all around us and within us. Relationships can only grow when we embrace the new and let go of the old. By Bud Ozar

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Have you had a moment in life in which you have experienced your own transfiguration? Abraham exhibits his total trust in God. How do we show our trust in God?

Readings: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Romans 8:31b-34; Mark 9:2-10

Dubuque Area Catholic Evangelization Outreach #1

On Tuesday evening, March 17, 2015, the Dubuque Area Catholic Evangelization Outreach (CEO) will offer its first presentation to the Dubuque community. This event will take place at Nativity Church, 1225 Alta Vista St. in Dubuque at 7:00 P.M. and will feature Archbishop Michael O. Jackels, the Archbishop of Dubuque, as its speaker.

The newly formed CEO is a ministry led by the Holy Spirit to assist local parishes in the Catholic Church's mission to evangelize. To evangelize is simply to be instrumental in leading others into a new or deeper relationship with Christ through our witness and our words. All of us, not only clergy and religious, are called by God to do this by virtue of our baptismal call. CEO will renew and energize people to personally and intentionally embrace this task as commanded by the Lord Jesus himself. Our effort (after this initial presentation by Archbishop Jackels), will feature talks given by Catholic laypeople, who will give witness to the difference Christ's presence has made in their lives and who will inspire us to develop a new or closer walk with Him. All are welcome!

The Witness

Read about the following topics and more in the March 1 issue of The Witness: John Allen, an internationally known journalist who covers the Catholic Church, speaks at Mt. Mercy University in Cedar Rapids; St. Francis Catholic School in Marshalltown dedicates its new school building; Catechumens and candidates participate in the Rite of Election ceremonies at three sites in the archdiocese; Catholic Schools superintendent responds to Iowa Department of Public Health's release of Immunization Program audit.

MUSIC & LITURGY

Share time, talent and soup!

Diane Link is sharing her time and talent at Resurrection Parish in many ways! Not only did she recently join our Liturgy Committee, she volunteers as a Reader and EM, not only at weekend Masses, but at the 5:30 pm daily Masses during Lent. Also, Diane provided a delicious vegetable soup dinner for those attending our Stations of the Cross, on Friday at 5:30pm. Our next Stations and Soup night will be March 13, and Tim & Mary Moothart (the winner of last year's Chili Cook-off) will be providing a vegetarian Jambalaya. I'm sure it will be a wonderful evening of prayer and sharing! We still need a Soup-Magician for March 27th's Stations. Would you like to share???

Journeysong Update

I am happy to share that OCP (Oregon Catholic Press) is replacing 438 of our current Journeysong Hymnals, of which many had bindings which were breaking, if not already broken. We will do our best to repair the current books as well as maintain the new replacements, as we hope to have these hymnals for 5-10 years. We will keep some of the additional hymnals in the Social Space for our overflow, and we ask that everyone continue to take care of our parish hymnals. These are OUR hymnals to cherish and use in our praise and worship. Please take care of them, as you would your own books at home.

Have you been faithful to your Lenten commitment to pray, fast, and give more? Have you even made a commitment yet? It's not too late to start and it's way too early to give up!

God affirms who Jesus is and gives us one very important instruction: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

February 18, 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On 10 December 2014, an accusation of sexual abuse of a minor was made against Father Leo Riley, alleged to have taken place in 1985, when he was assigned as an associate pastor at Resurrection Parish in Dubuque.

For your information, Father Riley is presently serving as a priest in the Diocese of Venice in Florida, where he transferred in 2002, not because of other accusations, but to be close to his parents. The bishop there, after learning of the accusation, has placed Father Riley on a temporary leave from ministry until the matter is resolved.

On 11 February 2015, the day after receiving the full complaint from the accuser's lawyer, the Archdiocesan Review Board advised me that the accusation was not manifestly false or frivolous. This does not mean that Father Riley is guilty, but merely that he and the alleged victim were at Resurrection Parish at that time.

As a consequence, I have opened a preliminary investigation to determine whether there is sufficient evidence that the allegation of sexual abuse of a minor likely did occur. Even that determination does not mean that Father Riley is guilty, but that the accusation will now be reviewed in a process to establish innocence or guilt.

Part of the preliminary investigation, according to the policy of the Archdiocese of Dubuque, is to notify the parishes in the Archdiocese of Dubuque where Father Riley served before he transferred to the Diocese of Venice.

If you know of any sexual abuse of minors alleged to have been perpetrated by Father Riley when he was assigned for ministry in your area, if you would, before 30 March 2015, contact Ms. Carol Gebhart, Director of the Office for the Protection of Children and Young People, at the Archdiocesan Pastoral Center (1229 Mt. Loretta Avenue, Dubuque, IA 52003; 563-556-2580).

Please join me in our continued commitment to do all that is humanly possible to protect minors from harm and to create a safe environment for involvement in Church activities, but also to preserve the good name of someone accused.

With kind regards and prayerful best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Michael O. Jackels
Archbishop of Dubuque

HOLY FAMILY

The Holy Family Catholic Schools Board of Education is the recipient of $61,209 from the Archbishop Kucera Grant Awards from the Archdiocese of Dubuque Educational Development Fund. The grant was awarded for tuition assistance to those families who can least afford the cost of attending a Catholic School. A portion of the grant was also directed towards tuition assistance for minority students who qualify for Federal School Lunch Program. Awards for these two programs totaled $485,000 for the 2014/15 program year.

The Archbishop Kucera Grant Awards annually provides $80,000 for faith formation resources and leadership development for faith formation leaders, catechists, Catholic school administrators and teachers. The grant also covers one-third of the program cost for adults enrolled in the Archdiocesan IMPACT Program.

The Archdiocesan Educational Development Fund was developed for the purpose of supporting the educational programs of the Archdiocese. This is the twenty-ninth year that grants have been awarded. Over 8.9 million dollars have been distributed since the Archdiocesan Educational Development Fund was established. Grants are made possible through the generous donations of contributors and parishioners throughout the Archdiocese.

WITNESS OF FAITH

A Lenten Reflection

Please join us for the witness talk to be given by Ann Knier, our coordinator of religious education at Resurrection. Ann's talk "Growing our Relationship with God through Knowledge: Finding Happiness Along the Way" will challenge us to think of our own desires for happiness and how they fit into God's desires for happiness and how they fit into God's desires for our lives. Ann's talk will begin at 6:00 pm in the Social Space at Resurrection Church. The evening will conclude with refreshments and time to reflect and socialize until 7:30 pm.

*A reminder that our 3rd talk will be given by Kathleen Timp on March 22nd.

We had a great response to our first Witness of Faith talk. Michael Mockler shared his story of the important role prayer has had in the trials and joys of his life. We look forward to Ann's talk, "Growing our Relationship with God" on March 8th.

Fr. Mark Murphy will begin his Lenten Bible Study on the Gospel of Mark this Monday, March 2nd from 6:30-7:45 pm in the social space. Please remember to bring your Bible!
