

Sept. 8, 1960

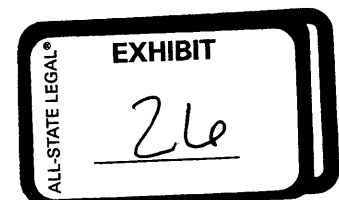

Your Excellency:

Tuesday evening, Sept. 6, 1960, Doctor Neufeld approached me and said some mother had come to him in tears about her son who was spending too much time with Father Janssen. She was worried about her son.

Doctor Neufeld had no details to give me. He mentioned an incident of the mother going to the store and her son and Father Janssen sitting in the back seat. She thought it strange that Father Janssen should take this boy on his lap. There was plenty of room in the back seat and furthermore it was a hot day and consequently uncomfortable.

It seems that Father Janssen has access to a cottage somewhere. This also worried the mother.
