

MT. SAVAGE

Mt. Savage, Md., June 10.

Young Priest Celebrates Mass

Solemn high mass was celebrated yesterday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church by Rev. George L. Hopkins, who was ordained to the priesthood Tuesday. Rev. James E. Malloy, deacon, was ordained in the same class.

Rev. George J. Larkin, uncle of Father Hopkins, was sub-deacon and John Farrell, classmate of Sulpician Seminary, was master of ceremonies. Revs. John W. Dowling and John Fannon were in the sanctuary.

Father Hopkins is a son of Mrs. Genevive Hopkins of Laurel, Md., and the late William Hopkins, formerly of Mt. Savage. His mother and sisters, the Misses Eileen, Mary and Winfred Hopkins, and aunts, the Misses Anna Mary and Kathryn Larkin of Laurel attended the mass.

Father Cole Celebrates Sunday

Rev. J. Gerard Cole, who was also ordained Thursday morning, will celebrate his first solemn high mass tomorrow at St. Patrick's Church. The Rev. George H. Traggesser, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Baltimore, and former pastor of St. Patrick's Church, will deliver a sermon.

Father Cole is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Cole of Chester, W. Va., formerly of Mt. Savage.

Father Cole will have been the third newly-ordained priest from Mt. Savage to celebrate mass at St. Patrick's Church within a week, the others being Rev. James E. Malloy and Rev. George L. Hopkins. All three were baptized by the Rev. John W. Dowling, then pastor of St. Patrick's Church.