

Islander Named Director Of High School In Kansas

The Rev. Donald P. McCarthy, a native of Galveston, has been named director of Sacred Heart High School in Salina, Kan.

The son of Mrs. Ursula McCarthy, 605 12th St., Galveston, Rev. McCarthy is a 1961 graduate of Kirwin High School.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1959 after completing studies at Assumption Seminary in San Antonio. In his new post he will direct the activities of the 300 - pupil - school where he has been teacher and counselor for the past seven years.

For the past five years, he has been in addition to teacher - counselor, pastor of two parishes in the Salina diocese and assistant chaplain at Marymount College, Salina.

Rev. McCarthy has a BA degree from St. Benedict's College in Atchison, Kan. and

REV. D. P. MCCARTHY
School Director

a MA degree from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.